SEXYLAVY RECORD.

A correspondent of the Richmond Whip, in a letter to the Richmond Inquirer, says of its author, Mr. Turner:—

"No, there is not much currency in the nation. It is a great deal better than the nation. I have never seen a paper that was better than a paper. I have been in the newspaper business for ten or twelve years, and I have never seen a paper that was better than a newspaper."

MAYOR'S BILLS.

Mr. Mayor, in a letter to the Richmond Inquirer, says of his colleagues:—

"I have never seen a bill that was better than a bill. I have been in the bill business for ten or twelve years, and I have never seen a bill that was better than a bill."

JUVENILE DEPARTMENT.

A short history.

The word "jovial" is employed to denote a cheerful or jocund disposition. It is also used to denote a state of mind full of joy and cheerfulness. The word is derived from the Latin word "jovialis," meaning "pertaining to Jupiter," the god of the sky and thunder. "Jovial" is often used to describe a person who is always cheerful and optimistic, and who enjoys life to the fullest. The word is also used to describe a gathering or event that is full of laughter and merriment. "Jovial" is often used in a positive sense to describe a person or an event that is full of joy and happiness.

HUMANITARIAN.

The word "humanitarian" is derived from the Latin word "humanitas," meaning "human feeling" or "the quality of being human." "Humanitarian" is often used to describe a person who is concerned with the welfare and treatment of all human beings, and who works to improve the conditions of those who are suffering or in need. The word is also used to describe an organization or group that is dedicated to the promotion of human rights and the welfare of all people. "Humanitarian" is often used in a positive sense to describe a person or an organization that is working to make the world a better place for all people.
