LITURGICAL, MISCELLANEOUS AND MORAL.

HINTS OF NATURAL HISTORY.

Sea and Shore.

By Capt. A. C. B.

The dark green forest covered by heaving winds. The waves roll upon it, driven by the sea. A white boat sails through the harbor, and its sail flutters in the wind. On the shore a group of men and women are walking along the beach, enjoying the sunny day.

Speech of John Ridge.

At a meeting of the Old Church, March 12. Mr. Ridge, the son of Mr. Ridge, the famous Indian leader, was a speaker on the condition of the Indian. He delivered a powerful and eloquent speech, in which he expressed his deep concern for the welfare of his people.

The Indian Race.

The Indian race is one of the oldest and most noble tribes in the world. They originally inhabited the continent of America before the arrival of the European nations. Their culture and society were rich and varied, and they had a deep reverence for nature and the spiritual world.

ON BEING BROUGHT FROM AFRICA TO AMERICA.

By Phileas W. Gray.

It was a dark and lonely night when the vessel arrived at the port of Liverpool. The passengers were exhausted from their long journey and the ship's crew were busy preparing to disembark them. The weather was stormy, and the sea was rough.

In the port of Liverpool, the passengers were met by a group of officials who were waiting to escort them to the train that would take them to their new home in America. The atmosphere was tense and somber as they stepped onto the dock, knowing that their lives as they knew them would never be the same again.