ANOTHER JAPANESE SHIP BURNED IN THE JAPAN SEA.

The Imperial Japanese government has been notified that another of their ships, the "Bunmei" (Glory) has been burned, with all hands, in the Japan Sea, near the island of Sado, by the Americans.

The "Bunmei" was a new steamfrigate, built at Nagasaki, and was on its way to the United States, when it was attacked by an American warship and set on fire.

The Japanese government has expressed its regret at the loss of life, and has promised compensation to the families of the victims.

BEFORE THE COURT.

The case of John Doe v. John Smith, No. 123, was called for argument today.

The plaintiff, Mr. Doe, alleges that the defendant, Mr. Smith, has been neglecting to pay the rent of the premises leased to him.

The defendant, Mr. Smith, denies the allegations and presents evidence in support of his position.

The judge reserved judgment until further notice.

NOTES ON THE HISTORY OF THE UNITED STATES.

The United States was founded on July 4, 1776, when the Declaration of Independence was adopted by the Continental Congress.

The first President of the United States was George Washington, who served from 1789 to 1797.

The United States has a democratic form of government, with a president as the head of state and government.

The United States is one of the world's most powerful and economically advanced nations.

African Colonization.

The African Colonization Society was established in 1817 to facilitate the colonization of African Americans in Africa.

The society sponsored expeditions to Africa and provided financial assistance to individuals and communities interested in establishing settlements.

The society's primary goal was to alleviate the problems faced by African Americans in the United States, particularly slavery.

KING ADDAMS AND ADMIRAL BLAINE.

What said in the old, the child, that made them dare.

"Beware of the man who says nothing, and let us not mind, or fear.

"He who has nothing to say, will speak in silence, and let us not hear.

Get ye hence, ye nut-like, and go open your eyes, and see the man.

"Thou seest him, and ye are sure to see him, and then will all the world see him, and know him."

Holy is he, and pure, and cannot be tempted, and no temptation shall come upon him, and he shall be saved.

"Let us not fear, for the Lord is with us, and he shall not suffer us to be tempted above that we are able, but will make a way of escape, that we may be able to bear it."
