Will the American Colonization Society Win?—by Samuel J. May, D.D.

In Part V, 1843, I asked, "Will the American Colonization Society Win?"

In Part VI, 1844, I replied, "No."

Now that the American Colonization Society has succeeded in securing a law establishing a colony for the American Negro in Africa, I ask, "Will the American Colonization Society Win?"

I reply, "Yes."
SLAVERY AND COLONIZATION.

In our paper of April 14th we called attention to the report of the American Colonization Society at the recent Congressional session, and in a letter to the Public, asked whether there was a personal or colonial interest in the formation of Liberia. Our correspondent, Mr. B. B. Fisk, in a letter to the Citizen, asks the same question, and points out that we have been guilty of asking the same question in a letter to the Citizen, and questions the answer we gave.

FAMILY OF ADAM.

'The destruction of the human family, by the flood, was a judgment, not a catastrophe, not a calamity, but the result of the discipline of the ages; and man knew the purpose of the plan, as well as his part in it, and the severity of the trial that was to come.

'The race was not destroyed; we are the result of that race, and the children of the race of Adam, and the sons of Adam; and the children of all the ages are now gathering together, and the world is to be the home of the sons of Adam, and the sons of the ages are to be the children of the race of Adam, and the children of the sons of Adam.

'The race is not destroyed; we are the result of that race, and the children of the race of Adam, and the sons of Adam; and the children of all the ages are now gathering together, and the world is to be the home of the sons of Adam, and the sons of the ages are to be the children of the race of Adam, and the children of the sons of Adam.
