AFRICAN COLONIZATION.

Under this head, a very valuable article will be found in the "African Repository," which we shall publish in a future number. This article is written by a gentleman who has long been interested in the subject of slavery, and who has for many years been a prominent figure in the anti-slavery movement. He is well acquainted with the conditions of slavery in the South, and is well informed as to the prospects of emancipation. His article is well written, and is backed by a wealth of facts and figures. It is a must for every anti-slavery club.

The Family Society of the Niles-It is the name of a new and important movement which is gaining ground in the United States. It is a society of men and women who are interested in the welfare of the family. The society is based on the principle that the family is the unit of society, and that its welfare should be the primary concern of all individuals. The society is composed of members who are willing to contribute their time and resources to the betterment of the family. The society has a large membership, and is growing rapidly.

The New York Times, July 2, 1854.}

Paging 219.