SLAVERY RECORD

SLAVEY RECORD

HORRIDS OF THE SLAVE TRADE.

By Capt. Benjamin Moore, Jr., visited in the Shannon, the famous amercial vessel, on her last voyage to Africa.

The captain, Mr. Moore, describes the heinous traffic in men, and the torture and bloodshed it involves.

He mentions the inhuman treatment of the captives, the brutal methods used by the slave traders, and the conditions on the slave ships.

The narrative is凄 shocking and enlightens the reader on the atrocities committed.

... (Further details and quotes from Captain Moore's account)...

The book was highly acclaimed for its vivid depiction of the slave trade and its impact on humanity.

... (End of the book passage)...

The end of the book passage leaves the reader with a deep sense of the immorality of the slave trade and the need for its abolition.

LITURGICAL.

SUNDAY-DAY TO THE SABBATH.

TO THE CITIZENS OF PITTSBURGH

AND THE PUBLIC GENERALLY.

Examining the Board of Trustees of the African Education Society at the City and vicinity of Pitts-burgh, it is necessary to state, that the public will be made acquainted with the object of their donation, and of the concern they are called upon to make.

The object of our subscription is the general education of the colored race, and the more immediate improvement of those persons who are not in the condition of being able to contribute to the promotion of the cause.

We are well satisfied, that it is ignorance on the part of the public that prevents them from becomingbenefactors of our Institution. The benefit of education is well calculated to prevent the effects of wrong ideas, which have, at all times, been productive of the most calamitous consequences.

The Board have set apart a fund of $50,000, and each ma-terial contribution, under the management of the Trustees, will be within the means of the public, and the most of the contributions will be in the form of contributions.

The Board have now at their command a fund of $50,000, which is to be devoted to the general education of the colored race, and we are hoping, in a few months, to be able to commence the work.

The Board have taken the following steps:

1st. They have engaged the services of an experienced teacher, and have paid him a salary of $500 per annum.

2nd. They have purchased a suitable house, and have furnished it for the use of the Trustees.

3rd. They have engaged a printer, and have commenced the publication of a weekly newspaper, to be called the "African Advocate," which will be devoted to the promotion of the cause.

4th. They have engaged a subscription list, and have commenced the solicitation of subscriptions from all classes of the community.

5th. They have engaged a lecturer, who will be employed in the lectures on the subject of education, and who will be paid a salary of $1,000 per annum.

6th. They have engaged a missionary, who will be employed in the missionary work, and who will be paid a salary of $500 per annum.

7th. They have engaged a translator, who will be employed in the translation of the Bible and other books, and who will be paid a salary of $500 per annum.

8th. They have engaged a printer, who will be employed in the printing of the Bible and other books, and who will be paid a salary of $500 per annum.

The Board have also taken the following steps:
