LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

S. — I am the most confidential agent of the New England Anti-Slavery Society, recently arrived in New York, and desirous of reaching the New England Press as quickly as possible, I beg you to publish the following letter, which I have just received from my secreta.

[Letter content]

[Signature]
LADIES DEPARTMENT.

The meeting of the Society, when the Constitution is in force, shall be held at least twice in every year, and adjournments shall be taken at the request of two-thirds of those present. The meetings shall be open to all members, except those of the Society's Library. In case of adjournment, the President shall have the power to call the next meeting to order.

CONSTITUTION.

The Constitution of the Society shall have for its object the improvement of the moral and intellectual condition of women, and the promotion of their interests in society. The Society shall be composed of members, who shall be elected by ballot, and who shall hold their offices for a term of three years, subject to recall at the will of the majority of the members present at any meeting of the Society.

ARTICLE II. The annual meeting of the Society shall be held on the first day of each month, at the hour appointed for the purpose. The members shall be sworn to observe the laws of the State of New York, and to support the Constitution and Government of the United States.

ARTICLE III. The Society shall have power to make rules and regulations for the government of its members, and to regulate the conduct of its meetings. The Society shall have power to confer upon any member such honor as it may deem fit, and to adopt such other objects as it may deem proper.

The Society shall hold an annual meeting at the time and place designated by the President, and at which the business of the Society shall be transacted.

ARTICLE IV. The Society shall have power to receive donations, legacies, and other contributions, for the purpose of furthering the objects of the Society, and to apply the same for the payment of the debts and expenses of the Society. The Society shall have power to borrow money, and to enter into contracts for the payment of debts.

ARTICLE V. The Society shall have power to receive and administer gifts of property, for the purpose of furthering the objects of the Society. The Society shall have power to accept such gifts upon such conditions as it may deem proper.

ARTICLE VI. The Society shall have power to construct and maintain a building for the use of the Society, and for the purpose of promoting the objects of the Society. The Society shall have power to borrow money, and to enter into contracts for the payment of debts.

ARTICLE VII. The Society shall have power to receive and administer gifts of property, for the purpose of furthering the objects of the Society. The Society shall have power to accept such gifts upon such conditions as it may deem proper.

ARTICLE VIII. The Society shall have power to receive and administer gifts of property, for the purpose of furthering the objects of the Society. The Society shall have power to accept such gifts upon such conditions as it may deem proper.

ARTICLE IX. The Society shall have power to receive and administer gifts of property, for the purpose of furthering the objects of the Society. The Society shall have power to accept such gifts upon such conditions as it may deem proper.

ARTICLE X. The Society shall have power to receive and administer gifts of property, for the purpose of furthering the objects of the Society. The Society shall have power to accept such gifts upon such conditions as it may deem proper.

ARTICLE XI. The Society shall have power to receive and administer gifts of property, for the purpose of furthering the objects of the Society. The Society shall have power to accept such gifts upon such conditions as it may deem proper.

ARTICLE XII. The Society shall have power to receive and administer gifts of property, for the purpose of furthering the objects of the Society. The Society shall have power to accept such gifts upon such conditions as it may deem proper.

ARTICLE XIII. The Society shall have power to receive and administer gifts of property, for the purpose of furthering the objects of the Society. The Society shall have power to accept such gifts upon such conditions as it may deem proper.

ARTICLE XIV. The Society shall have power to receive and administer gifts of property, for the purpose of furthering the objects of the Society. The Society shall have power to accept such gifts upon such conditions as it may deem proper.

ARTICLE XV. The Society shall have power to receive and administer gifts of property, for the purpose of furthering the objects of the Society. The Society shall have power to accept such gifts upon such conditions as it may deem proper.

ARTICLE XVI. The Society shall have power to receive and administer gifts of property, for the purpose of furthering the objects of the Society. The Society shall have power to accept such gifts upon such conditions as it may deem proper.

ARTICLE XVII. The Society shall have power to receive and administer gifts of property, for the purpose of furthering the objects of the Society. The Society shall have power to accept such gifts upon such conditions as it may deem proper.

ARTICLE XVIII. The Society shall have power to receive and administer gifts of property, for the purpose of furthering the objects of the Society. The Society shall have power to accept such gifts upon such conditions as it may deem proper.

ARTICLE XIX. The Society shall have power to receive and administer gifts of property, for the purpose of furthering the objects of the Society. The Society shall have power to accept such gifts upon such conditions as it may deem proper.

ARTICLE XX. The Society shall have power to receive and administer gifts of property, for the purpose of furthering the objects of the Society. The Society shall have power to accept such gifts upon such conditions as it may deem proper.

ARTICLE XXI. The Society shall have power to receive and administer gifts of property, for the purpose of furthering the objects of the Society. The Society shall have power to accept such gifts upon such conditions as it may deem proper.

ARTICLE XXII. The Society shall have power to receive and administer gifts of property, for the purpose of furthering the objects of the Society. The Society shall have power to accept such gifts upon such conditions as it may deem proper.

ARTICLE XXIII. The Society shall have power to receive and administer gifts of property, for the purpose of furthering the objects of the Society. The Society shall have power to accept such gifts upon such conditions as it may deem proper.

ARTICLE XXIV. The Society shall have power to receive and administer gifts of property, for the purpose of furthering the objects of the Society. The Society shall have power to accept such gifts upon such conditions as it may deem proper.

ARTICLE XXV. The Society shall have power to receive and administer gifts of property, for the purpose of furthering the objects of the Society. The Society shall have power to accept such gifts upon such conditions as it may deem proper.