JOURNAL OF THE TIMES.

SATURDAY, MARCH 26, 1858.

FAREWELL ADDRESS.

Mr. Gannett will give his farewell address at the Boston and Teachers' Institute, on Tuesday evening, at 7 o'clock, at the Hall of Music, Newbury Street, Boston.

NEW ENGLAND ANTI-SLAVERY SOCIETY.

A meeting of the Members of the Society, for the purpose of forming an Anti-Slavery Convention, and electing the following officers was held on Monday, March 15th.

MRS. SARAH REID, President.
MRS. ISOPHINE KINGMAN, Treasurer.
MRS. JULIA EATON, Secretary.
MRS. MARGARET KINZER, Corresponding Secretary.
MISS LUCY PAKER, Recording Secretary.

Mr. H. B. Judd, a delegate from Connecticut, delivered a notable address on the subject of the Society.

The following resolutions were adopted:

1. That we resolve to open a subscription for the support of the Society, in order to provide means for the dissemination of antislavery principles, and for the prosecution of antislavery measures.

2. That we resolve to hold a meeting of the members on the first Thursday of each month, at the Hall of Music, Newbury Street, Boston.

3. That we resolve to publish a monthly journal, to be called the "New England Anti-Slavery Journal," for the purpose of disseminating antislavery principles and for the prosecution of antislavery measures.

The meeting adjourned.

THE ABOLITIONIST.

Mr. J. H. Gannett will give his farewell address at the Boston and Teachers' Institute, on Tuesday evening, at 7 o'clock, at the Hall of Music, Newbury Street, Boston.

THE CONSTITUTION.

The following is a draft of the Constitution of the New England Anti-Slavery Society, as adopted by the members on the first Thursday of March, 1858:

ARTICLE I. The name of the Society shall be the New England Anti-Slavery Society.

ARTICLE II. The object of the Society shall be to effect the abolition of slavery, and to prevent the extension of slavery into any part of the United States.

ARTICLE III. The Society shall consist of members, who shall be elected by the members at large.

ARTICLE IV. The Society shall meet once in each month, at the Hall of Music, Newbury Street, Boston.

ARTICLE V. The Society shall have power to publish a monthly journal, to be called the "New England Anti-Slavery Journal."