THE LIBERATOR

SUNDAY, APRIL 13, 1853.

VERMONT CHRONICLE.

The history of the great American cotton and sugar slaveholders, and their abolitionists, is a tale of the revolting cruelties of the one, and the noblest efforts of the other to extirpate that hideous crime. Without acknowledging the justice of the present article, which is more fully furnished with facts and figures than any other on the subject, we shall abridge it, as it contains some truths which we feel bound to lay before our readers.

Mr. Drayton, of South Carolina, has recently published a work entitled "Cotton and Sugar Slavery," in which he attempts to prove that the system of slavery is not so injurious to the slave as is commonly supposed. He states that the slaveholder is the only person who benefits by the system, and that the negro is not a slave, but a free man. Mr. Drayton also adds that the negro is not a slave, but a free man, and that the negro is not a slave, but a free man.

Mr. Drayton, in his work, states that the negro is not a slave, but a free man, and that the negro is not a slave, but a free man. Mr. Drayton also adds that the negro is not a slave, but a free man, and that the negro is not a slave, but a free man.

Mr. Drayton, in his work, states that the negro is not a slave, but a free man, and that the negro is not a slave, but a free man. Mr. Drayton also adds that the negro is not a slave, but a free man, and that the negro is not a slave, but a free man.

Mr. Drayton, in his work, states that the negro is not a slave, but a free man, and that the negro is not a slave, but a free man. Mr. Drayton also adds that the negro is not a slave, but a free man, and that the negro is not a slave, but a free man.

Mr. Drayton, in his work, states that the negro is not a slave, but a free man, and that the negro is not a slave, but a free man. Mr. Drayton also adds that the negro is not a slave, but a free man, and that the negro is not a slave, but a free man.

Mr. Drayton, in his work, states that the negro is not a slave, but a free man, and that the negro is not a slave, but a free man. Mr. Drayton also adds that the negro is not a slave, but a free man, and that the negro is not a slave, but a free man.

Mr. Drayton, in his work, states that the negro is not a slave, but a free man, and that the negro is not a slave, but a free man. Mr. Drayton also adds that the negro is not a slave, but a free man, and that the negro is not a slave, but a free man.

Mr. Drayton, in his work, states that the negro is not a slave, but a free man, and that the negro is not a slave, but a free man. Mr. Drayton also adds that the negro is not a slave, but a free man, and that the negro is not a slave, but a free man.

Mr. Drayton, in his work, states that the negro is not a slave, but a free man, and that the negro is not a slave, but a free man. Mr. Drayton also adds that the negro is not a slave, but a free man, and that the negro is not a slave, but a free man.

Mr. Drayton, in his work, states that the negro is not a slave, but a free man, and that the negro is not a slave, but a free man. Mr. Drayton also adds that the negro is not a slave, but a free man, and that the negro is not a slave, but a free man.

Mr. Drayton, in his work, states that the negro is not a slave, but a free man, and that the negro is not a slave, but a free man. Mr. Drayton also adds that the negro is not a slave, but a free man, and that the negro is not a slave, but a free man.

Mr. Drayton, in his work, states that the negro is not a slave, but a free man, and that the negro is not a slave, but a free man. Mr. Drayton also adds that the negro is not a slave, but a free man, and that the negro is not a slave, but a free man.

Mr. Drayton, in his work, states that the negro is not a slave, but a free man, and that the negro is not a slave, but a free man. Mr. Drayton also adds that the negro is not a slave, but a free man, and that the negro is not a slave, but a free man.

Mr. Drayton, in his work, states that the negro is not a slave, but a free man, and that the negro is not a slave, but a free man. Mr. Drayton also adds that the negro is not a slave, but a free man, and that the negro is not a slave, but a free man.

Mr. Drayton, in his work, states that the negro is not a slave, but a free man, and that the negro is not a slave, but a free man. Mr. Drayton also adds that the negro is not a slave, but a free man, and that the negro is not a slave, but a free man.

Mr. Drayton, in his work, states that the negro is not a slave, but a free man, and that the negro is not a slave, but a free man. Mr. Drayton also adds that the negro is not a slave, but a free man, and that the negro is not a slave, but a free man.

Mr. Drayton, in his work, states that the negro is not a slave, but a free man, and that the negro is not a slave, but a free man. Mr. Drayton also adds that the negro is not a slave, but a free man, and that the negro is not a slave, but a free man.

Mr. Drayton, in his work, states that the negro is not a slave, but a free man, and that the negro is not a slave, but a free man. Mr. Drayton also adds that the negro is not a slave, but a free man, and that the negro is not a slave, but a free man.

Mr. Drayton, in his work, states that the negro is not a slave, but a free man, and that the negro is not a slave, but a free man. Mr. Drayton also adds that the negro is not a slave, but a free man, and that the negro is not a slave, but a free man.

Mr. Drayton, in his work, states that the negro is not a slave, but a free man, and that the negro is not a slave, but a free man. Mr. Drayton also adds that the negro is not a slave, but a free man, and that the negro is not a slave, but a free man.

Mr. Drayton, in his work, states that the negro is not a slave, but a free man, and that the negro is not a slave, but a free man. Mr. Drayton also adds that the negro is not a slave, but a free man, and that the negro is not a slave, but a free man.

Mr. Drayton, in his work, states that the negro is not a slave, but a free man, and that the negro is not a slave, but a free man. Mr. Drayton also adds that the negro is not a slave, but a free man, and that the negro is not a slave, but a free man.

Mr. Drayton, in his work, states that the negro is not a slave, but a free man, and that the negro is not a slave, but a free man. Mr. Drayton also adds that the negro is not a slave, but a free man, and that the negro is not a slave, but a free man.

Mr. Drayton, in his work, states that the negro is not a slave, but a free man, and that the negro is not a slave, but a free man. Mr. Drayton also adds that the negro is not a slave, but a free man, and that the negro is not a slave, but a free man.

Mr. Drayton, in his work, states that the negro is not a slave, but a free man, and that the negro is not a slave, but a free man. Mr. Drayton also adds that the negro is not a slave, but a free man, and that the negro is not a slave, but a free man.

Mr. Drayton, in his work, states that the negro is not a slave, but a free man, and that the negro is not a slave, but a free man. Mr. Drayton also adds that the negro is not a slave, but a free man, and that the negro is not a slave, but a free man.

Mr. Drayton, in his work, states that the negro is not a slave, but a free man, and that the negro is not a slave, but a free man. Mr. Drayton also adds that the negro is not a slave, but a free man, and that the negro is not a slave, but a free man.

Mr. Drayton, in his work, states that the negro is not a slave, but a free man, and that the negro is not a slave, but a free man. Mr. Drayton also adds that the negro is not a slave, but a free man, and that the negro is not a slave, but a free man.

Mr. Drayton, in his work, states that the negro is not a slave, but a free man, and that the negro is not a slave, but a free man. Mr. Drayton also adds that the negro is not a slave, but a free man, and that the negro is not a slave, but a free man.

Mr. Drayton, in his work, states that the negro is not a slave, but a free man, and that the negro is not a slave, but a free man. Mr. Drayton also adds that the negro is not a slave, but a free man, and that the negro is not a slave, but a free man.

Mr. Drayton, in his work, states that the negro is not a slave, but a free man, and that the negro is not a slave, but a free man. Mr. Drayton also adds that the negro is not a slave, but a free man, and that the negro is not a slave, but a free man.
MISCELLANEOUS.

[Text continues with various topics and articles, not all of which are fully legible, but includes topics such as 'THE COUNTRY PEOPLE,' 'COLORED PEOPLE,' 'THE GERMAN PEOPLE,' and 'THE INDIAN PEOPLE.']

[The text contains articles and editorials that discuss various aspects of society, culture, and politics. It includes discussions on the rights and treatment of different groups, as well as broader philosophical and ethical considerations.]

[The page ends with a section titled 'SOLICITATION OF VOLUNTEERS,' which seems to be a call to action or a Announcement of a committee or event, possibly related to the Civil War, given the context of the time period.]
LITERARY, MISCELLANEOUS AND MORAL.

The Project Eljah.

Admit its vileness, and let the fit be...

The Great Pertinence.

I have noticed a most interesting phenomenon...

The Universal Story.

To the northern huts where...

The Emancipator. Prospects.

The Spring of 1854.

A Moral.

Religion in a Cottage.

It was a sunny evening when the rails...

The Dark Angel.

A dark spirit passing by whispering in my ear...

The Entire and Incomplete.

SIR ROBERT HERDS.

SIR ROBERT HERDS, about the beginning of the month of December, 1846, was in a situation...

THE EMPHATICIAN.

E. MOORE.

VIII.

THE EMANCIPATOR.