COMMUNICATIONS.

UNCLE SAM'S CHAIR. No. 12.

We were wont to be in the habit of addressing ourselves to the Colossian, in order to adduce a corps of facts, which, as we believe, abundantly confirm the truth of our statements. We are much to be favored on the subject of the Colossian, and we do not wish to be misunderstood on this subject. We have found that the Colossian is a subject of very great importance, and we believe that the Colossian is in a state of great importance. We have, therefore, been much anxious to adduce a corps of facts, which, as we believe, abundantly confirm the truth of our statements.

[Embargo.]

We were not about to be in the habit of addressing ourselves to the Colossian, in order to adduce a corps of facts, which, as we believe, abundantly confirm the truth of our statements. We are much to be favored on the subject of the Colossian, and we do not wish to be misunderstood on this subject. We have found that the Colossian is a subject of very great importance, and we believe that the Colossian is in a state of great importance. We have, therefore, been much anxious to adduce a corps of facts, which, as we believe, abundantly confirm the truth of our statements.

[Embargo.]

We were not about to be in the habit of addressing ourselves to the Colossian, in order to adduce a corps of facts, which, as we believe, abundantly confirm the truth of our statements. We are much to be favored on the subject of the Colossian, and we do not wish to be misunderstood on this subject. We have found that the Colossian is a subject of very great importance, and we believe that the Colossian is in a state of great importance. We have, therefore, been much anxious to adduce a corps of facts, which, as we believe, abundantly confirm the truth of our statements.

[Embargo.]

We were not about to be in the habit of addressing ourselves to the Colossian, in order to adduce a corps of facts, which, as we believe, abundantly confirm the truth of our statements. We are much to be favored on the subject of the Colossian, and we do not wish to be misunderstood on this subject. We have found that the Colossian is a subject of very great importance, and we believe that the Colossian is in a state of great importance. We have, therefore, been much anxious to adduce a corps of facts, which, as we believe, abundantly confirm the truth of our statements.

[Embargo.]

We were not about to be in the habit of addressing ourselves to the Colossian, in order to adduce a corps of facts, which, as we believe, abundantly confirm the truth of our statements. We are much to be favored on the subject of the Colossian, and we do not wish to be misunderstood on this subject. We have found that the Colossian is a subject of very great importance, and we believe that the Colossian is in a state of great importance. We have, therefore, been much anxious to adduce a corps of facts, which, as we believe, abundantly confirm the truth of our statements.

[Embargo.]

We were not about to be in the habit of addressing ourselves to the Colossian, in order to adduce a corps of facts, which, as we believe, abundantly confirm the truth of our statements. We are much to be favored on the subject of the Colossian, and we do not wish to be misunderstood on this subject. We have found that the Colossian is a subject of very great importance, and we believe that the Colossian is in a state of great importance. We have, therefore, been much anxious to adduce a corps of facts, which, as we believe, abundantly confirm the truth of our statements.

[Embargo.]

We were not about to be in the habit of addressing ourselves to the Colossian, in order to adduce a corps of facts, which, as we believe, abundantly confirm the truth of our statements. We are much to be favored on the subject of the Colossian, and we do not wish to be misunderstood on this subject. We have found that the Colossian is a subject of very great importance, and we believe that the Colossian is in a state of great importance. We have, therefore, been much anxious to adduce a corps of facts, which, as we believe, abundantly confirm the truth of our statements.
CONSTITUTION

On the New York, Boston, Society

This Society shall be known by the name of the "New York, Boston, Society" and shall be constituted an unincorporated body, to be composed of all persons who shall contribute to the same an annual sum of money, to be fixed by the Society, and the Society shall meet at the time and place of meeting of the Executive Committee, and shall consist of all persons who shall pay such annual sum.

The Society shall hold an annual meeting, for the purpose of transacting its business, at such time and place as may be appointed by the Society.

The officers of the Society shall consist of a President, a Vice-President, a Secretary, and a Treasurer, and they shall be elected at the annual meeting of the Society.

The President shall preside at the meetings of the Society, and shall have the power to appoint such officers as he may deem necessary for the conduct of the business of the Society.

The Secretary shall keep a record of the proceedings of the Society, and shall have the power to appoint such assistants as he may deem necessary for the conduct of the business of the Society.

The Treasurer shall have charge of the funds of the Society, and shall have the power to appoint such assistants as he may deem necessary for the conduct of the business of the Society.

The members of the Society shall be entitled to vote at the annual meeting of the Society, and no member of the Society shall be entitled to vote at any other meeting of the Society.

The Society shall have the power to make such rules and regulations as may be necessary for the conduct of its business.

The Society shall have the power to receive and accept such gifts and donations as may be offered to it.

The Society shall have the power to make such donations as may be deemed necessary for the promotion of its objects.

The Society shall have the power to employ such agents as may be necessary for the conduct of its business.

The Society shall have the power to decide all questions which may arise in the conduct of its business.

The Society shall have the power to decide on all questions which may arise in the conduct of its business.