Because the Colonel is not accounted for in all respects as if they were an inferior order of cattle to horses and hogs, except as they can augment wealth and industry, and increase to the community. 3. It is considered the greatest nuisance. If there were no slaves to take notice of, it would be no great matter. 4. They are a species of the most precarious and evil disposed. 5. There is in the body of two legged animals, only kept in slavery, in the lower animals, to keep them, or to anything else. 6. He is a man, and a slave in the Christian sense of the word. 7. Look upon the description of your own condition, and the condition of your countrymen and your serfs. 8. That the right of the American colonists is plain declared. 9. Whatever may happen to the colonists, to the colony or to the nation, it is certain that the right of the colonists is plain declared. 10. This is an example of the American colonists, in the sense of the phrase, that the right of the colonists is plain declared. 11. And the colonists are in the sense of the phrase, that the right of the colonists is plain declared. 12. The colonists are in the sense of the phrase, that the right of the colonists is plain declared. 13. The colonists are in the sense of the phrase, that the right of the colonists is plain declared. 14. The colonists are in the sense of the phrase, that the right of the colonists is plain declared. 15. The colonists are in the sense of the phrase, that the right of the colonists is plain declared. 16. The colonists are in the sense of the phrase, that the right of the colonists is plain declared. 17. The colonists are in the sense of the phrase, that the right of the colonists is plain declared. 18. The colonists are in the sense of the phrase, that the right of the colonists is plain declared. 19. The colonists are in the sense of the phrase, that the right of the colonists is plain declared. 20. The colonists are in the sense of the phrase, that the right of the colonists is plain declared. 21. The colonists are in the sense of the phrase, that the right of the colonists is plain declared. 22. The colonists are in the sense of the phrase, that the right of the colonists is plain declared. 23. The colonists are in the sense of the phrase, that the right of the colonists is plain declared. 24. The colonists are in the sense of the phrase, that the right of the colonists is plain declared. 25. The colonists are in the sense of the phrase, that the right of the colonists is plain declared. 26. The colonists are in the sense of the phrase, that the right of the colonists is plain declared. 27. The colonists are in the sense of the phrase, that the right of the colonists is plain declared. 28. The colonists are in the sense of the phrase, that the right of the colonists is plain declared. 29. The colonists are in the sense of the phrase, that the right of the colonists is plain declared. 30. The colonists are in the sense of the phrase, that the right of the colonists is plain declared. 31. The colonists are in the sense of the phrase, that the right of the colonists is plain declared. 32. The colonists are in the sense of the phrase, that the right of the colonists is plain declared. 33. The colonists are in the sense of the phrase, that the right of the colonists is plain declared. 34. The colonists are in the sense of the phrase, that the right of the colonists is plain declared. 35. The colonists are in the sense of the phrase, that the right of the colonists is plain declared. 36. The colonists are in the sense of the phrase, that the right of the colonists is plain declared. 37. The colonists are in the sense of the phrase, that the right of the colonists is plain declared. 38. The colonists are in the sense of the phrase, that the right of the colonists is plain declared. 39. The colonists are in the sense of the phrase, that the right of the colonists is plain declared. 40. The colonists are in the sense of the phrase, that the right of the colonists is plain declared. 41. The colonists are in the sense of the phrase, that the right of the colonists is plain declared. 42. The colonists are in the sense of the phrase, that the right of the colonists is plain declared. 43. The colonists are in the sense of the phrase, that the right of the colonists is plain declared. 44. The colonists are in the sense of the phrase, that the right of the colonists is plain declared. 45. The colonists are in the sense of the phrase, that the right of the colonists is plain declared. 46. The colonists are in the sense of the phrase, that the right of the colonists is plain declared. 47. The colonists are in the sense of the phrase, that the right of the colonists is plain declared. 48. The colonists are in the sense of the phrase, that the right of the colonists is plain declared. 49. The colonists are in the sense of the phrase, that the right of the colonists is plain declared. 50. The colonists are in the sense of the phrase, that the right of the colonists is plain declared. 51. The colonists are in the sense of the phrase, that the right of the colonists is plain declared. 52. The colonists are in the sense of the phrase, that the right of the colonists is plain declared. 53. The colonists are in the sense of the phrase, that the right of the colonists is plain declared. 54. The colonists are in the sense of the phrase, that the right of the colonists is plain declared. 55. The colonists are in the sense of the phrase, that the right of the colonists is plain declared. 56. The colonists are in the sense of the phrase, that the right of the colonists is plain declared. 57. The colonists are in the sense of the phrase, that the right of the colonists is plain declared. 58. The colonists are in the sense of the phrase, that the right of the colonists is plain declared. 59. The colonists are in the sense of the phrase, that the right of the colonists is plain declared. 60. The colonists are in the sense of the phrase, that the right of the colonists is plain declared. 61. The colonists are in the sense of the phrase, that the right of the colonists is plain declared. 62. The colonists are in the sense of the phrase, that the right of the colonists is plain declared. 63. The colonists are in the sense of the phrase, that the right of the colonists is plain declared. 64. The colonists are in the sense of the phrase, that the right of the colonists is plain declared. 65. The colonists are in the sense of the phrase, that the right of the colonists is plain declared. 66. The colonists are in the sense of the phrase, that the right of the colonists is plain declared. 67. The colonists are in the sense of the phrase, that the right of the colonists is plain declared. 68. The colonists are in the sense of the phrase, that the right of the colonists is plain declared. 69. The colonists are in the sense of the phrase, that the right of the colonists is plain declared. 70. The colonists are in the sense of the phrase, that the right of the colonists is plain declared. 71. The colonists are in the sense of the phrase, that the right of the colonists is plain declared. 72. The colonists are in the sense of the phrase, that the right of the colonists is plain declared. 73. The colonists are in the sense of the phrase, that the right of the colonists is plain declared. 74. The colonists are in the sense of the phrase, that the right of the colonists is plain declared. 75. The colonists are in the sense of the phrase, that the right of the colonists is plain declared. 76. The colonists are in the sense of the phrase, that the right of the colonists is plain declared. 77. The colonists are in the sense of the phrase, that the right of the colonists is plain declared. 78. The colonists are in the sense of the phrase, that the right of the colonists is plain declared. 79. The colonists are in the sense of the phrase, that the right of the colonists is plain declared. 80. The colonists are in the sense of the phrase, that the right of the colonists is plain declared. 81. The colonists are in the sense of the phrase, that the right of the colonists is plain declared. 82. The colonists are in the sense of the phrase, that the right of the colonists is plain declared. 83. The colonists are in the sense of the phrase, that the right of the colonists is plain declared. 84. The colonists are in the sense of the phrase, that the right of the colonists is plain declared. 85. The colonists are in the sense of the phrase, that the right of the colonists is plain declared. 86. The colonists are in the sense of the phrase, that the right of the colonists is plain declared. 87. The colonists are in the sense of the phrase, that the right of the colonists is plain declared. 88. The colonists are in the sense of the phrase, that the right of the colonists is plain declared. 89. The colonists are in the sense of the phrase, that the right of the colonists is plain declared. 90. The colonists are in the sense of the phrase, that the right of the colonists is plain declared. 91. The colonists are in the sense of the phrase, that the right of the colonists is plain declared. 92. The colonists are in the sense of the phrase, that the right of the colonists is plain declared. 93. The colonists are in the sense of the phrase, that the right of the colonists is plain declared. 94. The colonists are in the sense of the phrase, that the right of the colonists is plain declared. 95. The colonists are in the sense of the phrase, that the right of the colonists is plain declared. 96. The colonists are in the sense of the phrase, that the right of the colonists is plain declared. 97. The colonists are in the sense of the phrase, that the right of the colonists is plain declared. 98. The colonists are in the sense of the phrase, that the right of the colonists is plain declared. 99. The colonists are in the sense of the phrase, that the right of the colonists is plain declared. 100. The colonists are in the sense of the phrase, that the right of the colonists is plain declared. because on that day all Americans were declared free and all the subsequent consequences were of a nature to place us in a position of peace and progress, in which we no longer have to carry the burden of slavery, we are told, and the consequences of which will no longer hinder our progress in the arts of peace. The establishment of freedom will bring a new era of prosperity and progress, in which we can now work to our full capacity, and in which we can now look forward to a brighter future.

That is why, in a sense, we are free. But there is a deeper meaning to the word "free." It means that we are free from the burden of slavery, and that we can now work together as equals. It means that we can now look forward to a brighter future, and that we can now work to our full capacity.

But there is a deeper meaning to the word "free." It means that we are free from the burden of slavery, and that we can now work together as equals. It means that we can now look forward to a brighter future, and that we can now work to our full capacity.

That is why, in a sense, we are free. But there is a deeper meaning to the word "free." It means that we are free from the burden of slavery, and that we can now work together as equals. It means that we can now look forward to a brighter future, and that we can now work to our full capacity.

But there is a deeper meaning to the word "free." It means that we are free from the burden of slavery, and that we can now work together as equals. It means that we can now look forward to a brighter future, and that we can now work to our full capacity.

That is why, in a sense, we are free. But there is a deeper meaning to the word "free." It means that we are free from the burden of slavery, and that we can now work together as equals. It means that we can now look forward to a brighter future, and that we can now work to our full capacity.

But there is a deeper meaning to the word "free." It means that we are free from the burden of slavery, and that we can now work together as equals. It means that we can now look forward to a brighter future, and that we can now work to our full capacity.

That is why, in a sense, we are free. But there is a deeper meaning to the word "free." It means that we are free from the burden of slavery, and that we can now work together as equals. It means that we can now look forward to a brighter future, and that we can now work to our full capacity.

But there is a deeper meaning to the word "free." It means that we are free from the burden of slavery, and that we can now work together as equals. It means that we can now look forward to a brighter future, and that we can now work to our full capacity.

That is why, in a sense, we are free. But there is a deeper meaning to the word "free." It means that we are free from the burden of slavery, and that we can now work together as equals. It means that we can now look forward to a brighter future, and that we can now work to our full capacity.

But there is a deeper meaning to the word "free." It means that we are free from the burden of slavery, and that we can now work together as equals. It means that we can now look forward to a brighter future, and that we can now work to our full capacity.

That is why, in a sense, we are free. But there is a deeper meaning to the word "free." It means that we are free from the burden of slavery, and that we can now work together as equals. It means that we can now look forward to a brighter future, and that we can now work to our full capacity.

But there is a deeper meaning to the word "free." It means that we are free from the burden of slavery, and that we can now work together as equals. It means that we can now look forward to a brighter future, and that we can now work to our full capacity.

That is why, in a sense, we are free. But there is a deeper meaning to the word "free." It means that we are free from the burden of slavery, and that we can now work together as equals. It means that we can now look forward to a brighter future, and that we can now work to our full capacity.

But there is a deeper meaning to the word "free." It means that we are free from the burden of slavery, and that we can now work together as equals. It means that we can now look forward to a brighter future, and that we can now work to our full capacity.

That is why, in a sense, we are free. But there is a deeper meaning to the word "free." It means that we are free from the burden of slavery, and that we can now work together as equals. It means that we can now look forward to a brighter future, and that we can now work to our full capacity.

But there is a deeper meaning to the word "free." It means that we are free from the burden of slavery, and that we can now work together as equals. It means that we can now look forward to a brighter future, and that we can now work to our full capacity.

That is why, in a sense, we are free. But there is a deeper meaning to the word "free." It means that we are free from the burden of slavery, and that we can now work together as equals. It means that we can now look forward to a brighter future, and that we can now work to our full capacity.

But there is a deeper meaning to the word "free." It means that we are free from the burden of slavery, and that we can now work together as equals. It means that we can now look forward to a brighter future, and that we can now work to our full capacity.

That is why, in a sense, we are free. But there is a deeper meaning to the word "free." It means that we are free from the burden of slavery, and that we can now work together as equals. It means that we can now look forward to a brighter future, and that we can now work to our full capacity.

But there is a deeper meaning to the word "free." It means that we are free from the burden of slavery, and that we can now work together as equals. It means that we can now look forward to a brighter future, and that we can now work to our full capacity.

That is why, in a sense, we are free. But there is a deeper meaning to the word "free." It means that we are free from the burden of slavery, and that we can now work together as equals. It means that we can now look forward to a brighter future, and that we can now work to our full capacity.

But there is a deeper meaning to the word "free." It means that we are free from the burden of slavery, and that we can now work together as equals. It means that we can now look forward to a brighter future, and that we can now work to our full capacity.

That is why, in a sense, we are free. But there is a deeper meaning to the word "free." It means that we are free from the burden of slavery, and that we can now work together as equals. It means that we can now look forward to a brighter future, and that we can now work to our full capacity.

But there is a deeper meaning to the word "free." It means that we are free from the burden of slavery, and that we can now work together as equals. It means that we can now look forward to a brighter future, and that we can now work to our full capacity.

That is why, in a sense, we are free. But there is a deeper meaning to the word "free." It means that we are free from the burden of slavery, and that we can now work together as equals. It means that we can now look forward to a brighter future, and that we can now work to our full capacity.

But there is a deeper meaning to the word "free." It means that we are free from the burden of slavery, and that we can now work together as equals. It means that we can now look forward to a brighter future, and that we can now work to our full capacity.

That is why, in a sense, we are free. But there is a deeper meaning to the word "free." It means that we are free from the burden of slavery, and that we can now work together as equals. It means that we can now look forward to a brighter future, and that we can now work to our full capacity.

But there is a deeper meaning to the word "free." It means that we are free from the burden of slavery, and that we can now work together as equals. It means that we can now look forward to a brighter future, and that we can now work to our full capacity.

That is why, in a sense, we are free. But there is a deeper meaning to the word "free." It means that we are free from the burden of slavery, and that we can now work together as equals. It means that we can now look forward to a brighter future, and that we can now work to our full capacity.

But there is a deeper meaning to the word "free." It means that we are free from the burden of slavery, and that we can now work together as equals. It means that we can now look forward to a brighter future, and that we can now work to our full capacity.

That is why, in a sense, we are free. But there is a deeper meaning to the word "free." It means that we are free from the burden of slavery, and that we can now work together as equals. It means that we can now look forward to a brighter future, and that we can now work to our full capacity.

But there is a deeper meaning to the word "free." It means that we are free from the burden of slavery, and that we can now work together as equals. It means that we can now look forward to a brighter future, and that we can now work to our full capacity.

That is why, in a sense, we are free. But there is a deeper meaning to the word "free." It means that we are free from the burden of slavery, and that we can now work together as equals. It means that we can now look forward to a brighter future, and that we can now work to our full capacity.
[Image 0x0 to 550x748]