THE LIBERATOR

VOL. III.

WILLIAM LLOYD GARRISON AND ISAAC KNAPP, PUBLISHERS.

OUR COUNTRY IS THE WORLD—OUR COUNTRYMEN, ALL MANKIND.

SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 28, 1833.

NO. 39.

BOSTON, MASSACHUSETTS.

[Text of the article discussing the 19th Amendment and women's suffrage rights, emphasizing the need for equal rights for women and the progress made in the fight for women's rights]

[Further content discussing various political and social issues of the time, including discussions on abolitionism, women's rights, and other social justice movements]

[End of document]
COMMUNICATIONS

[The following communication--from a correspondent of "The Liberator," in the seat of war, addressed to Mr. Haywood, an abolition friend of the metropolis--is published with pleasure in this journal.]

[The Boston Recorder,]

[Shrewsbury, Mass., July 20, 1863.]

A colored citizen of [Mississippi], a slave by the state, writes to the editor of "The Liberator," of the present condition of slaves in the state of Mississippi. (The letter is printed as follows:"

[The letter begins in the following manner:"

"My name is [Name], and I have been in slavery for [number of years]. I have seen the effects of slavery and know its cruelty. I am writing to tell you about the conditions of slaves in Mississippi.

"In Mississippi, life is very hard for us. We are not treated as human beings. We are beaten, whipped, and abused. Our bodies are often injured, and our minds are often broken. We are not allowed to speak our minds, and we are not allowed to learn.

"But we are not alone. We have friends who are working to free us. They are helping us to learn and to speak our minds. They are helping us to fight for our freedom.

"I have been in slavery for many years, but I will not give up. I will continue to fight for my freedom and for the freedom of all slaves.

"Please help us. Please help us to be free."

[The letter ends with a plea for help and a request for support from the "Liberator".]"

We have had the privilege of publishing this letter in "The Liberator," in the interest of the abolition movement. We hope that it will serve as a reminder of the cruel conditions under which slaves are held in Mississippi, and that it will inspire others to work for their freedom.

[The letter is signed by [Name].]

[Letter ends with a request for correspondence and support.]

We are always looking for new ways to help slaves and to fight for their freedom. If you are interested in helping, please contact us at [contact information].

---

[Additional content follows.]
JOURNAL OF THE TIMES.

PLAIN ANSWERS TO PLAIN QUESTIONS.

The editor of the Vermont Chronicle said, as it may be of interest to readers of the JOURNAL, that the only way to get people to do the things they are told is to make it plain what they are expected to do. As this is the only way to get people to do the things they are told, it is the only way to get people to do the things they are told.

COLONIAL PAMPHLET.

The pamphlet of the General Coloumbus, and on the subject of the slave trade, is published.

We are informed that the author of the pamphlet has been in the habit of writing for some time, and that the subject is one which he is well acquainted with. The pamphlet is said to be well written, and to contain much information.

SUSAN S. MATHER.

We have received a copy of the pamphlet, and are heartily pleased with its contents. It is well written, and contains much information. We can highly recommend it to all who are interested in the subject.

NATIONAL ANT-SLAVERY SOCIETY.

A meeting will be held at Philadelphia, in the room of the JOURNAL, on the 15th of this month, to consider the question of the abolition of slavery. The meeting will be opened by the editor, and will be followed by a discussion on the subject.

To the Editors of the Vermont Chronicle.

The Vermont Chronicle is a weekly paper, published in Vermont, and is well known for its strong anti-slavery views. The editor of the paper is a man of high character, and is well liked by all who know him.

The subject of slavery is a most important one, and it is to be hoped that the meeting will be successful in its aims.

SUSAN S. MATHER.

We are informed that the meeting is to be held in the room of the JOURNAL, and that it will be well attended.

SUSAN S. MATHER.

We have received a copy of the pamphlet, and are heartily pleased with its contents. It is well written, and contains much information. We can highly recommend it to all who are interested in the subject.

NATIONAL ANT-SLAVERY SOCIETY.

A meeting will be held at Philadelphia, in the room of the JOURNAL, on the 15th of this month, to consider the question of the abolition of slavery. The meeting will be opened by the editor, and will be followed by a discussion on the subject.

To the Editors of the Vermont Chronicle.

The Vermont Chronicle is a weekly paper, published in Vermont, and is well known for its strong anti-slavery views. The editor of the paper is a man of high character, and is well liked by all who know him.

The subject of slavery is a most important one, and it is to be hoped that the meeting will be successful in its aims.

SUSAN S. MATHER.

We have received a copy of the pamphlet, and are heartily pleased with its contents. It is well written, and contains much information. We can highly recommend it to all who are interested in the subject.

NATIONAL ANT-SLAVERY SOCIETY.

A meeting will be held at Philadelphia, in the room of the JOURNAL, on the 15th of this month, to consider the question of the abolition of slavery. The meeting will be opened by the editor, and will be followed by a discussion on the subject.

To the Editors of the Vermont Chronicle.

The Vermont Chronicle is a weekly paper, published in Vermont, and is well known for its strong anti-slavery views. The editor of the paper is a man of high character, and is well liked by all who know him.

The subject of slavery is a most important one, and it is to be hoped that the meeting will be successful in its aims.

SUSAN S. MATHER.

We have received a copy of the pamphlet, and are heartily pleased with its contents. It is well written, and contains much information. We can highly recommend it to all who are interested in the subject.

NATIONAL ANT-SLAVERY SOCIETY.

A meeting will be held at Philadelphia, in the room of the JOURNAL, on the 15th of this month, to consider the question of the abolition of slavery. The meeting will be opened by the editor, and will be followed by a discussion on the subject.

To the Editors of the Vermont Chronicle.

The Vermont Chronicle is a weekly paper, published in Vermont, and is well known for its strong anti-slavery views. The editor of the paper is a man of high character, and is well liked by all who know him.

The subject of slavery is a most important one, and it is to be hoped that the meeting will be successful in its aims.

SUSAN S. MATHER.

We have received a copy of the pamphlet, and are heartily pleased with its contents. It is well written, and contains much information. We can highly recommend it to all who are interested in the subject.

NATIONAL ANT-SLAVERY SOCIETY.

A meeting will be held at Philadelphia, in the room of the JOURNAL, on the 15th of this month, to consider the question of the abolition of slavery. The meeting will be opened by the editor, and will be followed by a discussion on the subject.

To the Editors of the Vermont Chronicle.

The Vermont Chronicle is a weekly paper, published in Vermont, and is well known for its strong anti-slavery views. The editor of the paper is a man of high character, and is well liked by all who know him.

The subject of slavery is a most important one, and it is to be hoped that the meeting will be successful in its aims.

SUSAN S. MATHER.

We have received a copy of the pamphlet, and are heartily pleased with its contents. It is well written, and contains much information. We can highly recommend it to all who are interested in the subject.

NATIONAL ANT-SLAVERY SOCIETY.

A meeting will be held at Philadelphia, in the room of the JOURNAL, on the 15th of this month, to consider the question of the abolition of slavery. The meeting will be opened by the editor, and will be followed by a discussion on the subject.

To the Editors of the Vermont Chronicle.

The Vermont Chronicle is a weekly paper, published in Vermont, and is well known for its strong anti-slavery views. The editor of the paper is a man of high character, and is well liked by all who know him.

The subject of slavery is a most important one, and it is to be hoped that the meeting will be successful in its aims.

SUSAN S. MATHER.
LITERARY MISScellANEOUS AND MORAL.

Yankel Doolittle.—An American gentleman arriving in London, did not find things as he had expected. He had been told that he should have heard with pleasure, but was not prepared for the result. He went to breakfast, and was surprised at the lack of politeness. Lunch was even worse, and dinner was a disaster. The only thing

he enjoyed was the wine, which was excellent. He was taken to the theater, and found the play very dull. He was too bored to stay long, and left before interval. The next day he was taken to a private house, and was shocked at the openness of the conversation. He was then taken to a club, where he found no one to talk to. Finally, he was taken to a ball, where he found no one to dance with. He was thoroughly disappointed, and decided to return home. His stay in London had not been what he had expected, and he left with a sour taste in his mouth.