With respect, says Martin, to the second section of the bill, containing the rejection of representation and direct taxation, he considers that amendment as forming part of the plan of reassumptions which has been so long denounced by the advocates of the public. In his view, the amendment would not only be ineffective for the purpose of securing the public service, but it would tend to increase the burdens of the people. He considers that the amendment would be productive of the same evils as the amendment of the first section, and that it is fraught with the same dangers. He therefore recommends that the amendment be rejected.

In his view, the amendment would not only be ineffective for the purpose of securing the public service, but it would tend to increase the burdens of the people. He considers that the amendment would be productive of the same evils as the amendment of the first section, and that it is fraught with the same dangers. He therefore recommends that the amendment be rejected. female slaves who had been sold in Maryland, with her child, on the way from Middleburg to Clarksburg, on the 14th inst., to New York, for their own account. The sale was to be for a price of $2,500, and the proceeds to be divided equally among the parties. The information was obtained from a reliable source, and the fact is now known to the public. It is believed that the sale will take place next Monday after noon, at the home of the parties concerned.

No one has been arrested in connection with the sale, and the authorities are taking steps to prevent its taking place. The sale is said to have been arranged by a prominent anti-slavery agent, who is known to have been active in the abolitionist movement for several years. The proceeds of the sale are to be used for the support of the abolitionist cause, and the agent is said to have promised to return the slaves to their homes in the South if they are not sold.

The sale is expected to attract a great deal of attention, and it is feared that it may have a profound effect on the minds of those who are opposed to slavery. The agent is said to have promised to return the slaves to their homes in the South if they are not sold.

The sale is expected to attract a great deal of attention, and it is feared that it may have a profound effect on the minds of those who are opposed to slavery. The agent is said to have promised to return the slaves to their homes in the South if they are not sold.

The sale is expected to attract a great deal of attention, and it is feared that it may have a profound effect on the minds of those who are opposed to slavery. The agent is said to have promised to return the slaves to their homes in the South if they are not sold.

The sale is expected to attract a great deal of attention, and it is feared that it may have a profound effect on the minds of those who are opposed to slavery. The agent is said to have promised to return the slaves to their homes in the South if they are not sold.

The sale is expected to attract a great deal of attention, and it is feared that it may have a profound effect on the minds of those who are opposed to slavery. The agent is said to have promised to return the slaves to their homes in the South if they are not sold.

The sale is expected to attract a great deal of attention, and it is feared that it may have a profound effect on the minds of those who are opposed to slavery. The agent is said to have promised to return the slaves to their homes in the South if they are not sold.

The sale is expected to attract a great deal of attention, and it is feared that it may have a profound effect on the minds of those who are opposed to slavery. The agent is said to have promised to return the slaves to their homes in the South if they are not sold.

The sale is expected to attract a great deal of attention, and it is feared that it may have a profound effect on the minds of those who are opposed to slavery. The agent is said to have promised to return the slaves to their homes in the South if they are not sold.
JOURNAL OF THE TIMES.

April 15, 1863.

DISMISSAL INTELLIGENCE FROM LIBERIA.

We are happy to state that a number of letters have been received from the American Colonization Society, which presents some interesting facts relative to the present condition of the Colonists in Liberia. The letters are from various sources, including the American Colonization Society, the American Colonization Society in Liberia, and the American Colonization Society in Africa. The letters contain information about the health and welfare of the Colonists, as well as reports of the progress of the settlement.

... (Continued from page 2)

A year since the news of the splendid failure at New Orleans, some of those parties who were present at the time of the battle, and who have since become prominent in the political world, have been as follows:

2. W. H. Seward—Secretary of State.
3. G. W. Cleaveland—Secretary of the Interior.
4. Z. B. Chandler—Secretary of the Treasury.

The above are well known as prominent politicians, and are respected by all classes of people. The letters also state that the health of the Colonists is improving, and that the provision of food and clothing is sufficient to meet the needs of the settlers.

... (Continued from page 3)

The letters further state that the settlement is progressing well, and that the Colonists are making good progress in the cultivation of the land. The letters also mention that the settlement is well supplied with provisions, and that the health of the Colonists is improving.

... (Continued from page 4)

The settlers are reported to be making good progress in the cultivation of the land, and the provision of food and clothing is sufficient to meet the needs of the settlers. The letters also mention that the settlement is well supplied with provisions, and that the health of the Colonists is improving. The letters also state that the Colonists are making good progress in the cultivation of the land, and that the provision of food and clothing is sufficient to meet the needs of the settlers.

... (Continued from page 5)

The letters further state that the settlement is progressing well, and that the Colonists are making good progress in the cultivation of the land. The letters also mention that the settlement is well supplied with provisions, and that the health of the Colonists is improving.

... (Continued from page 6)

The settlers are reported to be making good progress in the cultivation of the land, and the provision of food and clothing is sufficient to meet the needs of the settlers. The letters also mention that the settlement is well supplied with provisions, and that the health of the Colonists is improving. The letters also state that the Colonists are making good progress in the cultivation of the land, and that the provision of food and clothing is sufficient to meet the needs of the settlers.

... (Continued from page 7)

The letters further state that the settlement is progressing well, and that the Colonists are making good progress in the cultivation of the land. The letters also mention that the settlement is well supplied with provisions, and that the health of the Colonists is improving.

... (Continued from page 8)

The settlers are reported to be making good progress in the cultivation of the land, and the provision of food and clothing is sufficient to meet the needs of the settlers. The letters also mention that the settlement is well supplied with provisions, and that the health of the Colonists is improving. The letters also state that the Colonists are making good progress in the cultivation of the land, and that the provision of food and clothing is sufficient to meet the needs of the settlers.

... (Continued from page 9)

The letters further state that the settlement is progressing well, and that the Colonists are making good progress in the cultivation of the land. The letters also mention that the settlement is well supplied with provisions, and that the health of the Colonists is improving.

... (Continued from page 10)

The settlers are reported to be making good progress in the cultivation of the land, and the provision of food and clothing is sufficient to meet the needs of the settlers. The letters also mention that the settlement is well supplied with provisions, and that the health of the Colonists is improving. The letters also state that the Colonists are making good progress in the cultivation of the land, and that the provision of food and clothing is sufficient to meet the needs of the settlers.

... (Continued from page 11)

The letters further state that the settlement is progressing well, and that the Colonists are making good progress in the cultivation of the land. The letters also mention that the settlement is well supplied with provisions, and that the health of the Colonists is improving.

... (Continued from page 12)

The settlers are reported to be making good progress in the cultivation of the land, and the provision of food and clothing is sufficient to meet the needs of the settlers. The letters also mention that the settlement is well supplied with provisions, and that the health of the Colonists is improving. The letters also state that the Colonists are making good progress in the cultivation of the land, and that the provision of food and clothing is sufficient to meet the needs of the settlers.

... (Continued from page 13)

The letters further state that the settlement is progressing well, and that the Colonists are making good progress in the cultivation of the land. The letters also mention that the settlement is well supplied with provisions, and that the health of the Colonists is improving.

... (Continued from page 14)

The settlers are reported to be making good progress in the cultivation of the land, and the provision of food and clothing is sufficient to meet the needs of the settlers. The letters also mention that the settlement is well supplied with provisions, and that the health of the Colonists is improving. The letters also state that the Colonists are making good progress in the cultivation of the land, and that the provision of food and clothing is sufficient to meet the needs of the settlers.

... (Continued from page 15)

The letters further state that the settlement is progressing well, and that the Colonists are making good progress in the cultivation of the land. The letters also mention that the settlement is well supplied with provisions, and that the health of the Colonists is improving.

... (Continued from page 16)

The settlers are reported to be making good progress in the cultivation of the land, and the provision of food and clothing is sufficient to meet the needs of the settlers. The letters also mention that the settlement is well supplied with provisions, and that the health of the Colonists is improving. The letters also state that the Colonists are making good progress in the cultivation of the land, and that the provision of food and clothing is sufficient to meet the needs of the settlers.
LIVES OF THE LEARNED

ENGLISH SOCIETY.

A notorious character of English society, whose name is known and beloved by women; a philosophical and literary personage, who
and has always been a favorite in society, is
been known to all, and has given a just and unqualified pictures
of his own industry and integrity, of his character and is a man of parts, and has always been a favorite in society, is

REGULAR.

A notorious character of English society, whose name is known and beloved by
women; a philosophical and literary personage, who
and has always been a favorite in society, is
been known to all, and has given a just and unqualified pictures
of his own industry and integrity, of his character and
is a man of parts, and has always been a
favorite in society, is

MISCELLANEOUS.

O. F. POOR AFRIC.

In the course of his journey through the interior of Africa, he was taken by the natives, and was never seen more.

W. D. T. U.

A man of parts, and has always been a favorite in society, is

THE ACADEMY.

The academy was formed by
been known to all, and has given a just and unqualified pictures
of his own industry and integrity, of his character and
is a man of parts, and has always been a
favorite in society, is

AUTHORSHIP.

A notable character of English society, whose name is known and beloved by
women; a philosophical and literary personage, who
and has always been a favorite in society, is
been known to all, and has given a just and unqualified pictures
of his own industry and integrity, of his character and
is a man of parts, and has always been a favorite in society, is

TRAVEL.

A notable character of English society, whose name is known and beloved by
women; a philosophical and literary personage, who
and has always been a favorite in society, is
been known to all, and has given a just and unqualified pictures
of his own industry and integrity, of his character and
is a man of parts, and has always been a
favorite in society, is

THE ASSEMBLY.

A notable character of English society, whose name is known and beloved by
women; a philosophical and literary personage, who
and has always been a favorite in society, is
been known to all, and has given a just and unqualified pictures
of his own industry and integrity, of his character and
is a man of parts, and has always been a favorite in society, is

TRAVEL.

A notable character of English society, whose name is known and beloved by
women; a philosophical and literary personage, who
and has always been a favorite in society, is
been known to all, and has given a just and unqualified pictures
of his own industry and integrity, of his character and
is a man of parts, and has always been a
favorite in society, is

THE ACADEMY.

The academy was formed by
been known to all, and has given a just and unqualified pictures
of his own industry and integrity, of his character and
is a man of parts, and has always been a
favorite in society, is

AUTHORSHIP.

A notable character of English society, whose name is known and beloved by
women; a philosophical and literary personage, who
and has always been a favorite in society, is
been known to all, and has given a just and unqualified pictures
of his own industry and integrity, of his character and
is a man of parts, and has always been a favorite in society, is

TRAVEL.

A notable character of English society, whose name is known and beloved by
women; a philosophical and literary personage, who
and has always been a favorite in society, is
been known to all, and has given a just and unqualified pictures
of his own industry and integrity, of his character and
is a man of parts, and has always been a
favorite in society, is

THE ASSEMBLY.

A notable character of English society, whose name is known and beloved by
women; a philosophical and literary personage, who
and has always been a favorite in society, is
been known to all, and has given a just and unqualified pictures
of his own industry and integrity, of his character and
is a man of parts, and has always been a favorite in society, is

TRAVEL.

A notable character of English society, whose name is known and beloved by
women; a philosophical and literary personage, who
and has always been a favorite in society, is
been known to all, and has given a just and unqualified pictures
of his own industry and integrity, of his character and
is a man of parts, and has always been a
favorite in society, is

THE ACADEMY.

The academy was formed by
been known to all, and has given a just and unqualified pictures
of his own industry and integrity, of his character and
is a man of parts, and has always been a
favorite in society, is

AUTHORSHIP.

A notable character of English society, whose name is known and beloved by
women; a philosophical and literary personage, who
and has always been a favorite in society, is
been known to all, and has given a just and unqualified pictures
of his own industry and integrity, of his character and
is a man of parts, and has always been a favorite in society, is

TRAVEL.

A notable character of English society, whose name is known and beloved by
women; a philosophical and literary personage, who
and has always been a favorite in society, is
been known to all, and has given a just and unqualified pictures
of his own industry and integrity, of his character and
is a man of parts, and has always been a
favorite in society, is

THE ASSEMBLY.

A notable character of English society, whose name is known and beloved by
women; a philosophical and literary personage, who
and has always been a favorite in society, is
been known to all, and has given a just and unqualified pictures
of his own industry and integrity, of his character and
is a man of parts, and has always been a favorite in society, is

TRAVEL.

A notable character of English society, whose name is known and beloved by
women; a philosophical and literary personage, who
and has always been a favorite in society, is
been known to all, and has given a just and unqualified pictures
of his own industry and integrity, of his character and
is a man of parts, and has always been a
favorite in society, is

THE ACADEMY.

The academy was formed by
been known to all, and has given a just and unqualified pictures
of his own industry and integrity, of his character and
is a man of parts, and has always been a
favorite in society, is

AUTHORSHIP.

A notable character of English society, whose name is known and beloved by
women; a philosophical and literary personage, who
and has always been a favorite in society, is
been known to all, and has given a just and unqualified pictures
of his own industry and integrity, of his character and
is a man of parts, and has always been a favorite in society, is

TRAVEL.

A notable character of English society, whose name is known and beloved by
women; a philosophical and literary personage, who
and has always been a favorite in society, is
been known to all, and has given a just and unqualified pictures
of his own industry and integrity, of his character and
is a man of parts, and has always been a
favorite in society, is

THE ASSEMBLY.

A notable character of English society, whose name is known and beloved by
women; a philosophical and literary personage, who
and has always been a favorite in society, is
been known to all, and has given a just and unqualified pictures
of his own industry and integrity, of his character and
is a man of parts, and has always been a favorite in society, is

TRAVEL.

A notable character of English society, whose name is known and beloved by
women; a philosophical and literary personage, who
and has always been a favorite in society, is
been known to all, and has given a just and unqualified pictures
of his own industry and integrity, of his character and
is a man of parts, and has always been a
favorite in society, is

THE ACADEMY.

The academy was formed by
been known to all, and has given a just and unqualified pictures
of his own industry and integrity, of his character and
is a man of parts, and has always been a
favorite in society, is

AUTHORSHIP.

A notable character of English society, whose name is known and beloved by
women; a philosophical and literary personage, who
and has always been a favorite in society, is
been known to all, and has given a just and unqualified pictures
of his own industry and integrity, of his character and
is a man of parts, and has always been a favorite in society, is

TRAVEL.

A notable character of English society, whose name is known and beloved by
women; a philosophical and literary personage, who
and has always been a favorite in society, is
been known to all, and has given a just and unqualified pictures
of his own industry and integrity, of his character and
is a man of parts, and has always been a
favorite in society, is

THE ASSEMBLY.

A notable character of English society, whose name is known and beloved by
women; a philosophical and literary personage, who
and has always been a favorite in society, is
been known to all, and has given a just and unqualified pictures
of his own industry and integrity, of his character and
is a man of parts, and has always been a favorite in society, is

TRAVEL.

A notable character of English society, whose name is known and beloved by
women; a philosophical and literary personage, who
and has always been a favorite in society, is
been known to all, and has given a just and unqualified pictures
of his own industry and integrity, of his character and
is a man of parts, and has always been a
favorite in society, is

THE ACADEMY.

The academy was formed by
been known to all, and has given a just and unqualified pictures
of his own industry and integrity, of his character and
is a man of parts, and has always been a
favorite in society, is

AUTHORSHIP.

A notable character of English society, whose name is known and beloved by
women; a philosophical and literary personage, who
and has always been a favorite in society, is
been known to all, and has given a just and unqualified pictures
of his own industry and integrity, of his character and
is a man of parts, and has always been a favorite in society, is

TRAVEL.

A notable character of English society, whose name is known and beloved by
women; a philosophical and literary personage, who
and has always been a favorite in society, is
been known to all, and has given a just and unqualified pictures
of his own industry and integrity, of his character and
is a man of parts, and has always been a
favorite in society, is

THE ASSEMBLY.

A notable character of English society, whose name is known and beloved by
women; a philosophical and literary personage, who
and has always been a favorite in society, is
been known to all, and has given a just and unqualified pictures
of his own industry and integrity, of his character and
is a man of parts, and has always been a favorite in society, is

TRAVEL.

A notable character of English society, whose name is known and beloved by
women; a philosophical and literary personage, who
and has always been a favorite in society, is
been known to all, and has given a just and unqualified pictures
of his own industry and integrity, of his character and
is a man of parts, and has always been a
favorite in society, is

THE ACADEMY.

The academy was formed by
been known to all, and has given a just and unqualified pictures
of his own industry and integrity, of his character and
is a man of parts, and has always been a
favorite in society, is

AUTHORSHIP.