THE LIBERATOR

LETTER TO ARCHIBALD TAPPAN, ESQ.

I am sorry to inform you that the new government which has been formed in the United States is not one of the most promising prospects. It is true that there is a great deal of hope in the people, and that many are looking forward to better times. But I am afraid that the movement is not yet strong enough to resist the forces of reaction. I am afraid that the government will not be able to carry out the principles on which it was founded.

I am afraid that the government will not be able to carry out the principles on which it was founded.

The government is divided into two parties, the Republicans and the Democrats. The Republicans are the party of the West, and they advocate the abolition of slavery. The Democrats are the party of the East, and they advocate the maintenance of slavery. The two parties are in constant conflict, and it is doubtful whether the government will be able to maintain the Union.

I am afraid that the government will not be able to carry out the principles on which it was founded.

THE NEGRO MOTHER'S APPEAL.

A lady warmly,ventured to the other side of the room; her eyes were filled with tears. Her voice was low; she spoke softly and affectionately. Her words were full of tenderness and sympathy. She was clearly a woman of great moral force and influence.

-Let us be kind to the poor old Negro mothers. They are the mothers of a race. They are the custodians of the future of a nation. They are the keepers of the treasures of the world. They are the guardians of the happiness of a people. They are the architects of the future of a civilization. They are the custodians of the inheritance of a generation. They are the guardians of the welfare of a people. They are the keepers of the heritage of a nation. They are the custodians of the wealth of a race. They are the keepers of the treasures of a civilization. They are the guardians of the
