TRIBUTE TO WILBERFORCE

SATURDAY, OCTOBER 30, 1850.

In a formal protest against the bill for the removal of the Negro from the Traverse to an island belonging to the Union of the Docks of Wellington and their various hook and anchor system, the abolitionists of the United States proceed on a mission of instruction. We publish the following address for the benefit of the members of the United States, and hope that it will be of service to them in their future deliberations.

We wish to express our hearty thanks to the members of the Board of the United States, who, by their address, have favored us with their support. We heartily thank the members of the Board of the United States, and hope that they will continue to promote the interest of the American people in this great cause.
