As a meeting of the Parthenian Anti-Slavery Society was held in the city of New York, on the 24th instant, the following resolutions were unanimously adopted:

1. Resolved, That we deeply regret the fact that this Society has been compelled to meet, at this season of the year, when its members are so much engaged in the arduous task of raising funds for the support of the Anti-Slavery cause.

2. Resolved, That we forbear to express any opinion on the subject of the present political crisis, as we deem it inexpedient to interfere in the internal affairs of the country.

3. Resolved, That we fully endorse the principles of the late President, and are satisfied that his administration has been characterized by wisdom and moderation.

4. Resolved, That we are convinced that the present crisis is the result of the mischievous policies of the Administration, and that the country is in imminent danger of a revolution.

5. Resolved, That we are determined to support the Constitution and the Union, and to resist any attempt to overthrow them.

6. Resolved, That we earnestly appeal to all true patriots to unite with us in a vigorous and determined effort to preserve the Union.

7. Resolved, That we are convinced that the present crisis is the result of the mischievous policies of the Administration, and that the country is in imminent danger of a revolution.

8. Resolved, That we are determined to support the Constitution and the Union, and to resist any attempt to overthrow them.

9. Resolved, That we earnestly appeal to all true patriots to unite with us in a vigorous and determined effort to preserve the Union.

10. Resolved, That we are convinced that the present crisis is the result of the mischievous policies of the Administration, and that the country is in imminent danger of a revolution.

11. Resolved, That we are determined to support the Constitution and the Union, and to resist any attempt to overthrow them.

12. Resolved, That we earnestly appeal to all true patriots to unite with us in a vigorous and determined effort to preserve the Union.
