THE LIBERATOR.

VOL. IV.

OUR COUNTRY IS THE WORLD—OUR CONSTITUENTS ARE ALL MANKIND. (No. 88.

BOSTON, MASSACHUSETTS.

SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 6, 1844.

AT A MEETING held at the Office of the Liberator, Boston, Mass., on Saturday, September 6, 1844, the following Address was delivered by Mr. Wendell Phillips:

ADDRESS TO THE PEOPLE OF THE UNITED STATES.

At the meeting of the New England Anti-Slavery Convention, at the Park Street Church, Boston, on the 4th instant, I was requested to deliver an Address to the People of the United States. It is my duty to decline to do so, on the ground of the calumny that has been spread abroad, and the specious objection that has been urged against me, that I am not a citizen of the United States.

But I have been informed that the citizens of the United States, in all parts of the country, are deeply impressed with a sense of public danger, and are loath to allow such an objec

SLAVERY.

A MONSTER!

A fellow named Harney, a few days since, was murdered. A negro, named Harney, was arrested by policemen, who were attempting to stop a negro who was robbing a white person. The negro抵抗ed, and in the struggle, the negro was shot and killed. This is a typical case of the treatment of negroes in the South. They are treated as if they were animals, and are subject to the most brutal and inhuman treatment.

The South is a monster, and it is the duty of all true lovers of freedom and humanity to protest against its existence. It is a blot upon the boasted civilization of the white race, and it is a stain upon the character of the American people. It is a blot upon the reputation of the United States, and it is a stain upon the honor of the American people.
