THE LIBERATOR

VOL. IV.

HASTINGS, MASSACHUSETTS.

SATURDAY, DECEMBER 12, 1852.

We wish to impress the importance of the suffering and the struggle of the oppressed, the discontent of the discontented, and the demand for a better condition of society. The modern age is characterized by the idea of humanity and the demand for the social and political condition of society. COURT IN THE WORLD—OUR COUNTRYMEN AND ALL MANKIND.

COMUNICATIONS.

Kennebunk, Me., Dec. 6, 1852.

Mr. Editor,—I am a subscriber to your paper, and I wish to express my appreciation of the thorough and excellent way in which you have been conducting it. I have no desire to see the liberties of the country curtailed or impaired, but I believe that a system of taxation that is burdensome and oppressive is a great wrong to the people. The government should be just and equitable, and the tax laws should be simple and easy to understand.

Yours truly,

F. D. S.

In the United States, there is a great deal of wealth and privilege. There are many who are rich and powerful, and they are able to influence the decisions of the government. There is a need for reform, and I believe that your paper is doing a great service in exposing the corruptions of the system.

Yours truly,

A. B. C.

The government is charged with the responsibility of maintaining order and security. It is the duty of the government to protect the rights and liberties of all its citizens. The government should be just and fair to all, and it should be answerable to the people.

Yours truly,

E. D. F.
