THE LIBERATOR
VOL. V. BOSTON, MASSACHUSETTS.

[Saturday, March 14, 1833.

THOMSON'S REPORT.

The following is Mr. Thomson's well known and approved for doing this, "The History of the United States," which he republished in 1829.

23 BEACON STREET, Febr. 28, 1833.

Mr. — I have just read your paper of Jan. 20, and I think the arguments adduced in favor of your views for the equalization of property, and the abolition of all monopolies and privilege, are unanswerable. I believe you are right in your views. I am in favor of the abolition of all monopolies, and I believe that the laws which regulate the admission of foreign labor are wrong. I think that you are right in your views.

I have been a slave to the prejudice of the establishment of monarchical government, but I think it is wrong.

I think that the establishment of monarchical government is the only way to ensure the safety and happiness of the people. I think that the people should be free to choose their own rulers, and that the government should be responsible to the people.

I think that the people should have the right to vote, and I think that all men should be equal before the law.

I think that the abolition of all monopolies and privilege is the only way to ensure the safety and happiness of the people. I think that the people should be free to choose their own rulers, and that the government should be responsible to the people.

I think that the people should have the right to vote, and I think that all men should be equal before the law.

I think that the abolition of all monopolies and privilege is the only way to ensure the safety and happiness of the people. I think that the people should be free to choose their own rulers, and that the government should be responsible to the people.

I think that the people should have the right to vote, and I think that all men should be equal before the law.

I think that the abolition of all monopolies and privilege is the only way to ensure the safety and happiness of the people. I think that the people should be free to choose their own rulers, and that the government should be responsible to the people.

I think that the people should have the right to vote, and I think that all men should be equal before the law.

I think that the abolition of all monopolies and privilege is the only way to ensure the safety and happiness of the people. I think that the people should be free to choose their own rulers, and that the government should be responsible to the people.

I think that the people should have the right to vote, and I think that all men should be equal before the law.

I think that the abolition of all monopolies and privilege is the only way to ensure the safety and happiness of the people. I think that the people should be free to choose their own rulers, and that the government should be responsible to the people.

I think that the people should have the right to vote, and I think that all men should be equal before the law.

I think that the abolition of all monopolies and privilege is the only way to ensure the safety and happiness of the people. I think that the people should be free to choose their own rulers, and that the government should be responsible to the people.

I think that the people should have the right to vote, and I think that all men should be equal before the law.