SLAVERY.

CONDITION OF THE SLAVES AT THE SOUTH.

The following is an extract from a letter sent to Mr. Garrison, at Baltimore, from a clergyman in the southern part of the United States, who has lived in the South for many years.

GEORGE, March 30, 1832.

Dear Mr. Garrison,

I write to you to express my opinion regarding the condition of the slaves in the Southern States. I have lived in the South for many years, and have noticed the effects of slavery on the negroes. The condition of the slaves is deplorable. They are treated brutally and are often subjected to inhuman treatment.

Respectfully,

GEORGE
