SLAVERY.

KENTUCKY: THE AMERICAN ANIMAL FLESH SOCIETY.

ABOLITION SONG.

A SOCIETY to be called the "American Animal Flesh Society." Article 1. This Society shall be called the "American Animal Flesh Society." Article 2. The object of the Society is to be the elevation and protection of the animal species, and to expose the inhumanity of the practice of eating flesh, and the cruel methods by which it is obtained.

Aegean

A new abolition society was formed in Aegean, consisting of 50 members. The object of the society is to prevent the further importation of slaves from Africa into the United States.

COMMUNICATIONS.

We have received the following letter:

DEAR SIR,

I am glad to see that there has been a great increase in the number of anti-slavery societies in this country. I think it is about time that we should all unite in a common cause and work towards the abolition of slavery. Sincerely yours,

A. B. Anti-Slavery Society.

NEW YORK.

The New York Anti-Slavery Society has recently held a meeting to discuss the question of the importation of slaves from Africa. The society decided that all such importations should be stopped immediately.

HORRORS OF SLAVERY.

We are informed that a freedman, who recently escaped from slavery in the State of Georgia, was recently captured by slave catchers and sold back into slavery. The freedman, who is a member of the freedmen's union, was actively engaged in the struggle for freedom and was able to escape from his captors.

CONCLUSION.

The destruction of the slave trade is a cause that demands the attention of all who care for the welfare of humanity. Let us all work together for the abolition of slavery and for the establishment of a just and equitable system of labor for all.

THE END.
Boston, May 9, 1858.

My Dear Father,

We had a very quiet and instructive journey from New York, and I am now in receipt of your letter which I have just received. I must say that I was very much surprised to hear from you, as I had supposed that you had left the anti-slavery movement. However, I have no objection to your coming back, and I shall be glad to see you again. I will write you soon.

Yours truly,

A. C. Garrison.
