SLAVERY.

[From Early Adversary.]

At a regular meeting of the Highland Society, Monday, 27th instant, among other subjects, the following address on the subject of Slavery was delivered by Mr. Young: -

1. Resolved, That in the opinion of the American nation and the world, slavery is a sin and an outrage, and that we are justified in exerting our influence against it.

2. Resolved, That in the opinion of this Society, slavery is the most great public wrong, and that we are justified in exerting our influence against it.

3. Resolved, That in the opinion of this Society, slavery is the most great public wrong, and that we are justified in exerting our influence against it.

4. Resolved, That the Conference view the subject of slavery with the utmost regret and concern, and that they are justified in exerting their influence against it.

COMMUNICATIONS.

[Content of a communication from a subscriber, not legible in the image.]