THE LIBERATOR.

VOL. V

OUR COUNTRY IS THE WORLD—OUR COUNTRYMEN ARE ALL MANKIND.

BOSTON, MASSACHUSETTS.

[NO. 20.

SATURDAY, JULY 22, 1859.

THE WILL OF SAMUEL GIST.

Dear Grist,

I have received from England a letter from Samuel Gist, in which he states that he has left a will in my favor, which I am to take care of. He asks me to forward the money to you, as he has no other way of communicating with you. I shall do so as soon as possible.

Yours truly,

LORD GARRISON.

The Will of Samuel Gist

Dear friend,

I have received a letter from Samuel Gist, who has left a will in my favor. He asks me to forward the money to you, as he has no other way of communicating with you. I shall do so as soon as possible.

Yours truly,

LORD GARRISON.

THE POLICITIANS AGAIN!

Please consider this letter as a statement of the political situation in America, as of May 24, 1859.

N. Y. Journal of Commerce.

COMMUNICATIONS.

There is one page, in a country's history, when every one knows how to spell it. It is a very sad day when every one can spell it. But when we read the newspapers, we know how to spell it.

THE NUGGET DISCUSSION.

The nugget discussion, as far as I can see, is of no importance. The Jesuits have strength, but they are not powerful enough to control the government. The question is not one of power, but of morality. The Jesuits have not the power to control the government, but they have the moral influence to control it.

Dr. Brown.

THE LIBERATOR.

Vol. V.

BOSTON, MASSACHUSETTS.

[NO. 20.

SATURDAY, JULY 22, 1859.

THE WILL OF SAMUEL GIST.

Dear Grist,

I have received from England a letter from Samuel Gist, in which he states that he has left a will in my favor, which I am to take care of. He asks me to forward the money to you, as he has no other way of communicating with you. I shall do so as soon as possible.

Yours truly,

LORD GARRISON.

THE POLICITIANS AGAIN!

Please consider this letter as a statement of the political situation in America, as of May 24, 1859.

N. Y. Journal of Commerce.

COMMUNICATIONS.

There is one page, in a country's history, when every one knows how to spell it. It is a very sad day when every one can spell it. But when we read the newspapers, we know how to spell it.

THE NUGGET DISCUSSION.

The nugget discussion, as far as I can see, is of no importance. The Jesuits have strength, but they are not powerful enough to control the government. The question is not one of power, but of morality. The Jesuits have not the power to control the government, but they have the moral influence to control it.

Dr. Brown.
LITERARY, MISCELLANEOUS AND MORAL.

From the New York Journal of Commerce.

[Article about a political event or discussion, discussing the views of Mr. Lincoln and other politicians on the issue at hand.]