ANTI-LIBERTY MEETING IN

No. 2.

The anti-free system of cotton-growing, in the hands of the Hottentot, is the greatest blessing in the world. The vast amount of labor which is thus secured, is not only a blessing to the poor, but a blessing to the rich, by preventing the accumulation of great wealth. The poor are relieved from the necessity of working hard, and the rich are relieved from the necessity of paying high wages. The poor are, in fact, the gainers, and the rich are the losers. The anti-free system of cotton-growing is, in short, the greatest blessing in the world.

A LETTER TO THE REV. M. STUART, MINISTER.

ANOVER, MASS.

Rev. Sir,—I am, etc.

As an advocate of the mission of a letter to those who are in error, I feel it my duty to lay before you the subject of the following letter, which I am compelled to write in order to bring to your notice some facts which are calculated to produce a beneficial effect on your mind and heart.

I have no wish to deserve your displeasure, but I cannot refrain from expressing my sentiments on a subject which appears to me of the utmost importance, and which deserves the attention of every Christian in this state.

I am aware that your mind is occupied with other matters, but I trust that you will find time to peruse this letter, and to consider the subject which it contains.

I have no wish to engage in a controversy with you, but I trust that you will take the trouble to read the letter, and to form your own opinion on the subject.

I have no wish to prove that your opinion is incorrect, but I trust that you will read the letter, and to form your own opinion on the subject.

I have no wish to prove that your opinion is incorrect, but I trust that you will read the letter, and to form your own opinion on the subject.

I have no wish to prove that your opinion is incorrect, but I trust that you will read the letter, and to form your own opinion on the subject.

I have no wish to prove that your opinion is incorrect, but I trust that you will read the letter, and to form your own opinion on the subject.

I have no wish to prove that your opinion is incorrect, but I trust that you will read the letter, and to form your own opinion on the subject.

I have no wish to prove that your opinion is incorrect, but I trust that you will read the letter, and to form your own opinion on the subject.

I have no wish to prove that your opinion is incorrect, but I trust that you will read the letter, and to form your own opinion on the subject.

I have no wish to prove that your opinion is incorrect, but I trust that you will read the letter, and to form your own opinion on the subject.

I have no wish to prove that your opinion is incorrect, but I trust that you will read the letter, and to form your own opinion on the subject.

I have no wish to prove that your opinion is incorrect, but I trust that you will read the letter, and to form your own opinion on the subject.

I have no wish to prove that your opinion is incorrect, but I trust that you will read the letter, and to form your own opinion on the subject.

I have no wish to prove that your opinion is incorrect, but I trust that you will read the letter, and to form your own opinion on the subject.

I have no wish to prove that your opinion is incorrect, but I trust that you will read the letter, and to form your own opinion on the subject.

I have no wish to prove that your opinion is incorrect, but I trust that you will read the letter, and to form your own opinion on the subject.
