CUMBERLAND BAPTIST ASSOCIATION.

Mr. Garrison, in the present session of the Cumberland Baptist Association held in Providence, Rhode Island, and from a circular letter to the Secretary of the same, relative to the views of the meeting, the following proposition was submitted for a vote, to wit: 'Resolved, that the Cumberland Baptist Association should, instead of a resolution, adopt a convention for the promotion of religious truth, and the advancement of the great work of our redemption.'

The proposition was adopted, and a committee appointed to make out the necessary arrangements.
