THE LIBERATOR

Vol. VI.

OUR COUNTRY IS THE WORLD—OUR COUNTRYMEN ARE ALL MANKIND.

BOSTON, MASSACHUSETTS.

SATURDAY, MARCH 5, 1856.

[THE LIBERATOR is published weekly at No. 20 Boylston-street, BOSTON, by W. LLOYD GARRISON, EDITOR.]
the day. But for the sake of the poor and weak, and of those who are in need, and of the unfortunate, for the sake of the poor and weak, and of those who are in need, we must be moved by the same principles of kindness and sympathy that move the Church and the state.

In the west, the situation is very different. Here, the Church is the State, and the State is the Church. The principles of the Church are the principles of the State, and the principles of the State are the principles of the Church. The principles of the Church are based on the teachings of the Bible, and the principles of the State are based on the teachings of the Church. The Church is the State, and the State is the Church. The principles of the Church are the principles of the State, and the principles of the State are the principles of the Church.
