THE TEXAN WAR

The War of Texas has ended the present crisis. The Mexican Army has been defeated in the battle of Lipan, and the American troops have occupied the important city of Veracruz. This is a signal victory for the Union, and a blow to the hopes of those who wish to establish an empire in North America.

PROCEEDINGS OF THE N.E. ANTI-SLAVERY CONVENTION.

The American Anti-Slavery Convention was held in Philadelphia on the 4th of July. The convention was opened by the Rev. Mr. Sydenham, who spoke on the subject of slavery in a powerful and influential manner. The convention was addressed by several prominent speakers, including Mr. Garrison, Mr. Channing, and Mr. Channing. The speeches were well received by the audience, and the convention adjourned.

NOTES.

A Quarterly Meeting of the Massachusetts Anti-Slavery Society will be held at the Middlesex County Court-House, on the 31st of July, at 12 o'clock, A.M. Persons desiring to attend the meeting may apply to the Secretary, Rev. Mr. Stone, at the Post-office, No. 46, Washington-street, Boston.

INFORMATION WANTED.

An old friend of the late Mr. Brown, who was killed in the battle of Rorke's Drift, has written to the editor of the New York Times, requesting that he be informed of the fate of his son, who was with him at the time of the battle. The editor has forwarded the message, and the father is now waiting for an answer.

TO SUBSCRIBERS.

You are respectfully and earnestly asked to keep up the subscription for the Times, as the funds are required for the support of the paper. The subscription rates are as follows: one year, $2; two years, $3. Any subscriber who is able to pay more is requested to do so. The subscription lists are now being prepared for the 1852 edition.