JOURNAL OF THE TIMES

SOUTH WENDETH ANTI-SLAVERY SOCIETY.

A meeting of the Anti-Slavery Society was held in the Church on Thursday evening, at which Mr. W. B. was called to the Chair. He explained to the Society the necessity of adopting a uniform system of anti-slavery action, and the importance of the Society's acting in concert. He also read a letter from the Secretary of the American Anti-Slavery Society, expressing his regret at the absence of representatives from the South, and desiring to know the reason for the non-attendance. The meeting adjourned to May 3.

PEREGRINE.

Religion is the right and only law of society, and the power of the Bible and the Catholic Church are essential to the maintenance of society. The Bible is the true and infallible guide of all things, and the Catholic Church is the true and infallible interpreter of the Bible. The Church of England is the true and infallible interpreter of the Bible, and the Church of Rome is the true and infallible interpreter of the Bible. The Church of England is the true and infallible interpreter of the Bible, and the Church of Rome is the true and infallible interpreter of the Bible. The Church of England is the true and infallible interpreter of the Bible, and the Church of Rome is the true and infallible interpreter of the Bible.

THE MEMORABLE DAY.

On Monday night, the memorable Pest of August, the American Anti-Slavery Society held a meeting in the Church, at which Mr. W. B. was called to the Chair. He explained to the Society the necessity of adopting a uniform system of anti-slavery action, and the importance of the Society's acting in concert. He also read a letter from the Secretary of the American Anti-Slavery Society, expressing his regret at the absence of representatives from the South, and desiring to know the reason for the non-attendance. The meeting adjourned to May 3.

NOTICE.

The public are hereby notified that the Pall Mall Times, will commence in Monday, the 1st of August, and will be published weekly. The Subscription price is 50 cents per year. A special rate of 25 cents per year is offered to subscribers who will pay in advance.

WILLIAM L. BROWN.

P. S. Letters may be addressed to the New York Anti-Slavery Society, with the name of the subscriber.

THE AMERICAN ANTI-SLAVE EXCHANGE.

The American Anti-Slave Exchange, in the capacity of the American Anti-Slavery Society, has requested the anti-slavery societies of the United States to meet at the anti-slavery convention in New York, on the 1st of August, to consider the anti-slavery measures of the next year. The convention will be held in the meeting-house of the American Anti-Slavery Society, at 10 o'clock in the morning of the 1st of August.

J. B. BROWN.