resolutions.

4. Resolved, That for the maintenance of another aboriginal tribe among the American Indians, by the agency of the agents of the American Board of Commissioners for Foreign Missions, is a scheme which is highly important as a means of promoting the diffusion of the knowledge of the gospel among the heathen nations of the earth, and of promoting the civilization of the aboriginal tribes of America.

5. Resolved, That the character of Mr. Van Buren is highly commended by the agents of the American Board of Commissioners for Foreign Missions, as a man of integrity, ability, and industry, and as a zealous and efficient agent in the cause of education and civilization.

6. Resolved, That the views and opinions of Mr. Van Buren, as expressed in his recent publications, are highly commendable, as being calculated to promote the welfare of the Indian tribes, and to advance the interests of the American Board of Commissioners for Foreign Missions.

7. Resolved, That the meeting of the American Board of Commissioners for Foreign Missions, at which the above resolutions were adopted, are highly commended by Mr. Van Buren, as being calculated to promote the welfare of the Indian tribes, and to advance the interests of the American Board of Commissioners for Foreign Missions.

8. Resolved, That the views and opinions of Mr. Van Buren, as expressed in his recent publications, are highly commendable, as being calculated to promote the welfare of the Indian tribes, and to advance the interests of the American Board of Commissioners for Foreign Missions.

9. Resolved, That the character of Mr. Van Buren is highly commended by the agents of the American Board of Commissioners for Foreign Missions, as a man of integrity, ability, and industry, and as a zealous and efficient agent in the cause of education and civilization.

10. Resolved, That the views and opinions of Mr. Van Buren, as expressed in his recent publications, are highly commendable, as being calculated to promote the welfare of the Indian tribes, and to advance the interests of the American Board of Commissioners for Foreign Missions.

11. Resolved, That the character of Mr. Van Buren is highly commended by the agents of the American Board of Commissioners for Foreign Missions, as a man of integrity, ability, and industry, and as a zealous and efficient agent in the cause of education and civilization.

12. Resolved, That the views and opinions of Mr. Van Buren, as expressed in his recent publications, are highly commendable, as being calculated to promote the welfare of the Indian tribes, and to advance the interests of the American Board of Commissioners for Foreign Missions.

13. Resolved, That the character of Mr. Van Buren is highly commended by the agents of the American Board of Commissioners for Foreign Missions, as a man of integrity, ability, and industry, and as a zealous and efficient agent in the cause of education and civilization.

14. Resolved, That the views and opinions of Mr. Van Buren, as expressed in his recent publications, are highly commendable, as being calculated to promote the welfare of the Indian tribes, and to advance the interests of the American Board of Commissioners for Foreign Missions.

15. Resolved, That the character of Mr. Van Buren is highly commended by the agents of the American Board of Commissioners for Foreign Missions, as a man of integrity, ability, and industry, and as a zealous and efficient agent in the cause of education and civilization.

16. Resolved, That the views and opinions of Mr. Van Buren, as expressed in his recent publications, are highly commendable, as being calculated to promote the welfare of the Indian tribes, and to advance the interests of the American Board of Commissioners for Foreign Missions.

17. Resolved, That the character of Mr. Van Buren is highly commended by the agents of the American Board of Commissioners for Foreign Missions, as a man of integrity, ability, and industry, and as a zealous and efficient agent in the cause of education and civilization.

18. Resolved, That the views and opinions of Mr. Van Buren, as expressed in his recent publications, are highly commendable, as being calculated to promote the welfare of the Indian tribes, and to advance the interests of the American Board of Commissioners for Foreign Missions.

19. Resolved, That the character of Mr. Van Buren is highly commended by the agents of the American Board of Commissioners for Foreign Missions, as a man of integrity, ability, and industry, and as a zealous and efficient agent in the cause of education and civilization.

20. Resolved, That the views and opinions of Mr. Van Buren, as expressed in his recent publications, are highly commendable, as being calculated to promote the welfare of the Indian tribes, and to advance the interests of the American Board of Commissioners for Foreign Missions.

21. Resolved, That the character of Mr. Van Buren is highly commended by the agents of the American Board of Commissioners for Foreign Missions, as a man of integrity, ability, and industry, and as a zealous and efficient agent in the cause of education and civilization.

22. Resolved, That the views and opinions of Mr. Van Buren, as expressed in his recent publications, are highly commendable, as being calculated to promote the welfare of the Indian tribes, and to advance the interests of the American Board of Commissioners for Foreign Missions.