THE GREAT ANTI-SLAVERY MEETING IN LONDON.

The Anti-Slavery Convention, held in this city, on Thursday, the 15th inst., under the auspices of the British and Foreign Anti-Slavery Society, has ended with a most gratifying and instructive result. The meeting was called to order at half-past seven o'clock, and was attended by a large number of the most respectable citizens of the city. The proceedings were conducted by the Rev. Dr. Wood, and were of a most interesting character. The address of the meeting was delivered by the Rev. Dr. Wood, and was followed by a series of addresses by the Rev. Dr. Wood and other distinguished speakers. The addresses were followed by a discussion of the subject, which was conducted with great ability and spirit. The meeting was adjourned at half-past nine o'clock. The resolutions passed were as follows:

1. That this meeting desires to express its hearty thanks to the British and Foreign Anti-Slavery Society for its labors in the cause of abolition.

2. That this meeting desires to express its hearty thanks to the British and Foreign Anti-Slavery Society for its labors in the cause of abolition.

The meeting ended with a vote of thanks to the Rev. Dr. Wood, and a resolution was passed authorizing the society to continue its labors in the cause of abolition.

The different speakers and the meeting adjourned.
