A LETTER.

To the Rev. Dr. H. J. G., the deputation from the Royal Council at the Am nesty Convention, New York, in reply to your letter on the subject of the American anomalies, from Hon. Mr. P. J. B. C. of the New York, dated the 6th instant.}

Dr. BRANTON,

I am happy to inform you, in reply to your letter of the 6th instant, that I am in possession of the documents and papers you requested. I have carefully examined them, and find that they contain a great deal of valuable information on the subject of the American anomalies.

I am informed that the deputation from the Royal Council at the Amnesty Convention, New York, have recently arrived, and are about to proceed to the United States, to take up the matter of the American anomalies. I shall be happy to assist them in any way I can, and shall be glad to have the opportunity of communicating with them.

I am, with the highest respect,

Your obedient servant,

METING AT WASHINGTON.

Meeting House, Friday, March 21st, 1861.

A Meeting was held at the Meeting House, on the invitation of the Committee of Arrangements for the meeting. The meeting was opened by the President, who stated that the meeting was called for the purpose of discussing the question of the African anomaly, and that the Committee of Arrangements had been directed to prepare a report on the subject. The meeting adjourned to a later date for the purpose of considering the report of the Committee of Arrangements.

A NEW CHURCH.

A new church was recently organized in the city of New York, under the name of the First Congregational Church. The church is located in the heart of the city, and is one of the largest and most ornate buildings of its kind in the country. The interior is beautifully decorated, and the church is well equipped with organs, chandeliers, and other appointments.

The church is open to all, and is open for prayer and worship at any time. The minister is Rev. Dr. J. B. M., who is a well-known and respected member of the Congregational Church. He is a man of deep learning and great piety, and is well fitted to minister to the spiritual needs of his flock.

The Woman of Fashion

Adolphus Busie

The story of the woman of fashion is a tale of triumph and tragedy, of success and failure. From humble beginnings, she rose to the heights of society, only to fall back into obscurity. The tale is one of ambition, of love, and of revenge. It is a story that teaches us the value of humility and the dangers of arrogance.
