In the abstract of popular sensation, the American Anti-Slavery Society through a series of resolutions and proclamations has announced that the subject of slavery is as much a human question as that of emancipation of the negro. In their opinion, the Abolitionists are the only friends of humanity, and the only statesmen who can be trusted to guide the nation in its present crisis. They believe that the abolition of slavery is the only way to secure the peace and prosperity of the nation. Therefore, they call upon all men to unite in the work of emancipation, and to support the measures of the American Anti-Slavery Society. They believe that the abolition of slavery is the only way to secure the peace and prosperity of the nation.

SLAVERY.

EXTRACT FROM AN ADDRESS.

The President of the American Anti-Slavery Society, in an address to the State Convention of New York, says: "We believe that the abolition of slavery is the only way to secure the peace and prosperity of the nation. Therefore, we call upon all men to unite in the work of emancipation, and to support the measures of the American Anti-Slavery Society. We believe that the abolition of slavery is the only way to secure the peace and prosperity of the nation."
SERIAL INFLUENCE.

To the Editor of the Liberator.

Sir,—I am informed that the abolition of slavery is a subject of very great importance to the interests of the white race, and that it is now considered indispensable to the success of the American republic.

May I be permitted to state, that I am not only a native of the United States, but a native of the slave state of Virginia, and that I have been a resident of that state for more than ten years?

I am informed that the abolition of slavery is a subject of very great importance to the interests of the white race, and that it is now considered indispensable to the success of the American republic.

I have been a resident of that state for more than ten years.
