

CORRESPONDENCE.

(From the New York Evangelist.)
Mr. Z. C. Delavan, your publication
a letter, which I have received from my beloved friend Delavan.

LETTER OF MR. SMITH TO MR. DELAVAN.
Z. C. Delavan,
Dear friend, I have your pen to solicit
a great favor.

My dear friend, it is not less the liberty of
conscience, nor the honor of our race,
nor the American Anti-Slavery Society.
My frequent communications with you in relation to its just and entirely and cordially approved them.

I will now consider the other supposed cause
of your joining the Anti-Slavery Society.
I have no doubt, that because your good heart is not advancing the interests—some of them, by cause and effect, of benevolence, are restrained from embracing the public cause, they would think, if they should
the public cause, they would think, if they should
the public cause, they would think, if they should

LETTER OF MR. DELAVAN TO MR. SMITH.
Baltimore Convention, Saratoga Co., N. Y.
To Mr. Smith, Esq.,
Dear Sir, I have your highly interesting communication, which I regret that an unusual pressure of business has prevented me from replying to it.

CONVENTION AT PHILADELPHIA.
The proceedings of the Convention called by the name of the Convention of the Friends of the Church and the American Anti-Slavery Society, held in Philadelphia on the 11th inst. are now
before the eyes of the public.

REMARKS OF R. J. BRICKENRIDGE.
Aiding to the question concerning slavery,
has been the subject of much discussion,
and has been the subject of much discussion,
and has been the subject of much discussion.

have others introduced which we have nothing waster to concern on any branch of the subject.
To do so, any person who has no interest in the general subject, contemning
the feelings of the people, and totally foreign from Presbyterianism.
The resolution was to be argued by one side or the other, and the other side was to be represented by one of our own members.

REMARKS OF W. M. FLEMING.
to the General Assembly, planning
the subject of the resolution,
and the subject of the resolution,
and the subject of the resolution.

CHRISTIANITY IN BOSTON!!
We are all opposed to slavery!!
Read, Powerfully!!
At a meeting of the Board of Managers of the Massachusetts Anti-Slavery Society, April 11th,

Episcopalian Society.
School for Moral Discipline.
Dear Sir, I have just returned from New time in waiting.

Unitarian Philosophy.
The following letter is honorable to D. Channing.
Dear Sir, I have just received your letter,
requesting the use of the Federal St. Church for the purpose of holding a meeting.

Methodist Philosophy.
As a Methodist, I have no objection to your
meeting, and I have no objection to your
meeting, and I have no objection to your meeting.

Episcopalian Society.
Dear Sir, I have just received your letter,
requesting the use of the Federal St. Church for
the purpose of holding a meeting.

Methodist Philosophy.
As a Methodist, I have no objection to your
meeting, and I have no objection to your
meeting, and I have no objection to your
meeting.

At a meeting of the Standing Committee of the Church in Bristol, on the 14th inst.
A resolution was passed,
and a resolution was passed,
and a resolution was passed.

Orthodox Philanthropy.
Boston, April 22, 1837.
The President Committee of the Board of Management of the Church in Bristol,
has the honor to inform you,
that the resolution of the Standing Committee, in relation to the use of the Church, has been approved, and will be carried
into effect.

Rev. John Pierpont.
Dear Sir, I have your pen to solicit
a great favor.
My dear friend, it is not less the liberty of
conscience, nor the honor of our race,
nor the American Anti-Slavery Society.

Rev. John Pierpont.
Dear Sir, I have your pen to solicit
a great favor.
My dear friend, it is not less the liberty of
conscience, nor the honor of our race,
nor the American Anti-Slavery Society.

Rev. John Pierpont.
Dear Sir, I have your pen to solicit
a great favor.
My dear friend, it is not less the liberty of
conscience, nor the honor of our race,
nor the American Anti-Slavery Society.

Rev. John Pierpont.
Dear Sir, I have your pen to solicit
a great favor.
My dear friend, it is not less the liberty of
conscience, nor the honor of our race,
nor the American Anti-Slavery Society.

Rev. John Pierpont.
Dear Sir, I have your pen to solicit
a great favor.
My dear friend, it is not less the liberty of
conscience, nor the honor of our race,
nor the American Anti-Slavery Society.

Rev. John Pierpont.
Dear Sir, I have your pen to solicit
a great favor.
My dear friend, it is not less the liberty of
conscience, nor the honor of our race,
nor the American Anti-Slavery Society.

Rev. John Pierpont.
Dear Sir, I have your pen to solicit
a great favor.
My dear friend, it is not less the liberty of
conscience, nor the honor of our race,
nor the American Anti-Slavery Society.

Rev. John Pierpont.
Dear Sir, I have your pen to solicit
a great favor.
My dear friend, it is not less the liberty of
conscience, nor the honor of our race,
nor the American Anti-Slavery Society.

Rev. John Pierpont.
Dear Sir, I have your pen to solicit
a great favor.
My dear friend, it is not less the liberty of
conscience, nor the honor of our race,
nor the American Anti-Slavery Society.

Rev. John Pierpont.
Dear Sir, I have your pen to solicit
a great favor.
My dear friend, it is not less the liberty of
conscience, nor the honor of our race,
nor the American Anti-Slavery Society.

At a meeting of the Standing Committee of the Church in Bristol, on the 14th inst.
A resolution was passed,
and a resolution was passed,
and a resolution was passed.

Orthodox Philanthropy.
Boston, April 22, 1837.
The President Committee of the Board of
Management of the Church in Bristol,
has the honor to inform you,
that the resolution of the Standing Committee, in relation to the
use of the Church, has been
approved, and will be carried
into effect.

Rev. John Pierpont.
Dear Sir, I have your pen to solicit
a great favor.
My dear friend, it is not less the liberty of
conscience, nor the honor of our race,
nor the American Anti-Slavery Society.

Rev. John Pierpont.
Dear Sir, I have your pen to solicit
a great favor.
My dear friend, it is not less the liberty of
conscience, nor the honor of our race,
nor the American Anti-Slavery Society.

Rev. John Pierpont.
Dear Sir, I have your pen to solicit
a great favor.
My dear friend, it is not less the liberty of
conscience, nor the honor of our race,
nor the American Anti-Slavery Society.

Rev. John Pierpont.
Dear Sir, I have your pen to solicit
a great favor.
My dear friend, it is not less the liberty of
conscience, nor the honor of our race,
nor the American Anti-Slavery Society.

Rev. John Pierpont.
Dear Sir, I have your pen to solicit
a great favor.
My dear friend, it is not less the liberty of
conscience, nor the honor of our race,
nor the American Anti-Slavery Society.

Rev. John Pierpont.
Dear Sir, I have your pen to solicit
a great favor.
My dear friend, it is not less the liberty of
conscience, nor the honor of our race,
nor the American Anti-Slavery Society.

Rev. John Pierpont.
Dear Sir, I have your pen to solicit
a great favor.
My dear friend, it is not less the liberty of
conscience, nor the honor of our race,
nor the American Anti-Slavery Society.

Rev. John Pierpont.
Dear Sir, I have your pen to solicit
a great favor.
My dear friend, it is not less the liberty of
conscience, nor the honor of our race,
nor the American Anti-Slavery Society.

Rev. John Pierpont.
Dear Sir, I have your pen to solicit
a great favor.
My dear friend, it is not less the liberty of
conscience, nor the honor of our race,
nor the American Anti-Slavery Society.

Rev. John Pierpont.
Dear Sir, I have your pen to solicit
a great favor.
My dear friend, it is not less the liberty of
conscience, nor the honor of our race,
nor the American Anti-Slavery Society.

At a meeting of the Standing Committee of the Church in Bristol, on the 14th inst.
A resolution was passed,
and a resolution was passed,
and a resolution was passed.

Orthodox Philanthropy.
Boston, April 22, 1837.
The President Committee of the Board of
Management of the Church in Bristol,
has the honor to inform you,
that the resolution of the Standing Committee, in relation to the
use of the Church, has been
approved, and will be carried
into effect.

Rev. John Pierpont.
Dear Sir, I have your pen to solicit
a great favor.
My dear friend, it is not less the liberty of
conscience, nor the honor of our race,
nor the American Anti-Slavery Society.

Rev. John Pierpont.
Dear Sir, I have your pen to solicit
a great favor.
My dear friend, it is not less the liberty of
conscience, nor the honor of our race,
nor the American Anti-Slavery Society.

Rev. John Pierpont.
Dear Sir, I have your pen to solicit
a great favor.
My dear friend, it is not less the liberty of
conscience, nor the honor of our race,
nor the American Anti-Slavery Society.

Rev. John Pierpont.
Dear Sir, I have your pen to solicit
a great favor.
My dear friend, it is not less the liberty of
conscience, nor the honor of our race,
nor the American Anti-Slavery Society.

Rev. John Pierpont.
Dear Sir, I have your pen to solicit
a great favor.
My dear friend, it is not less the liberty of
conscience, nor the honor of our race,
nor the American Anti-Slavery Society.

Rev. John Pierpont.
Dear Sir, I have your pen to solicit
a great favor.
My dear friend, it is not less the liberty of
conscience, nor the honor of our race,
nor the American Anti-Slavery Society.

Rev. John Pierpont.
Dear Sir, I have your pen to solicit
a great favor.
My dear friend, it is not less the liberty of
conscience, nor the honor of our race,
nor the American Anti-Slavery Society.

Rev. John Pierpont.
Dear Sir, I have your pen to solicit
a great favor.
My dear friend, it is not less the liberty of
conscience, nor the honor of our race,
nor the American Anti-Slavery Society.

Rev. John Pierpont.
Dear Sir, I have your pen to solicit
a great favor.
My dear friend, it is not less the liberty of
conscience, nor the honor of our race,
nor the American Anti-Slavery Society.

Rev. John Pierpont.
Dear Sir, I have your pen to solicit
a great favor.
My dear friend, it is not less the liberty of
conscience, nor the honor of our race,
nor the American Anti-Slavery Society.

At a meeting of the Standing Committee of the Church in Bristol, on the 14th inst.
A resolution was passed,
and a resolution was passed,
and a resolution was passed.

Orthodox Philanthropy.
Boston, April 22, 1837.
The President Committee of the Board of
Management of the Church in Bristol,
has the honor to inform you,
that the resolution of the Standing Committee, in relation to the
use of the Church, has been
approved, and will be carried
into effect.

Rev. John Pierpont.
Dear Sir, I have your pen to solicit
a great favor.
My dear friend, it is not less the liberty of
conscience, nor the honor of our race,
nor the American Anti-Slavery Society.

Rev. John Pierpont.
Dear Sir, I have your pen to solicit
a great favor.
My dear friend, it is not less the liberty of
conscience, nor the honor of our race,
nor the American Anti-Slavery Society.

Rev. John Pierpont.
Dear Sir, I have your pen to solicit
a great favor.
My dear friend, it is not less the liberty of
conscience, nor the honor of our race,
nor the American Anti-Slavery Society.

Rev. John Pierpont.
Dear Sir, I have your pen to solicit
a great favor.
My dear friend, it is not less the liberty of
conscience, nor the honor of our race,
nor the American Anti-Slavery Society.

Rev. John Pierpont.
Dear Sir, I have your pen to solicit
a great favor.
My dear friend, it is not less the liberty of
conscience, nor the honor of our race,
nor the American Anti-Slavery Society.

Rev. John Pierpont.
Dear Sir, I have your pen to solicit
a great favor.
My dear friend, it is not less the liberty of
conscience, nor the honor of our race,
nor the American Anti-Slavery Society.

Rev. John Pierpont.
Dear Sir, I have your pen to solicit
a great favor.
My dear friend, it is not less the liberty of
conscience, nor the honor of our race,
nor the American Anti-Slavery Society.

Rev. John Pierpont.
Dear Sir, I have your pen to solicit
a great favor.
My dear friend, it is not less the liberty of
conscience, nor the honor of our race,
nor the American Anti-Slavery Society.

Rev. John Pierpont.
Dear Sir, I have your pen to solicit
a great favor.
My dear friend, it is not less the liberty of
conscience, nor the honor of our race,
nor the American Anti-Slavery Society.

Rev. John Pierpont.
Dear Sir, I have your pen to solicit
a great favor.
My dear friend, it is not less the liberty of
conscience, nor the honor of our race,
nor the American Anti-Slavery Society.

