LITERARY, MISCELLANEOUS AND MORAL.

LETTER IV.

From the M'am of Montauk, to Her Friend, Miss Title.

Dear Miss Title,

I am just now finishing a long and important letter to a friend in the West, and am anxious to get it off tomorrow. I shall therefore begin yours this evening, and will, I trust, in the course of a week, have you safely in hand.

I have, in the course of my travels, found many interesting objects of observation, and shall be glad to hear your opinion of them. I shall also be glad to hear from you with regard to the condition of women in different parts of the country, and shall be happy to answer any questions you may ask me.

I am, Miss Title, with great respect,

Your obedient servant,
