THE LIBERATOR
OUR COUNTRY IS THE WORLD, OUR COUNTRYMEN ARE ALL MANKIND.
BOSTON, FRIDAY, JANUARY 11, 1856.

ANTE-SLAVERY.

LAPIDUS, FRANKLIN & CROMAG.

The following signed letter was written in answer to a letter from E. B. Edmonston, of Columbia, S. C., in the hands of a free colored man, and was sent to the editor of the New York Times.

Sir: You have the honor to be addressed by a freedman, who has been long an associate of the writer of this note, and who has known me in a better day than the writer of this note.

My name is John Smith, and I have been long an associate of the writer of this note, and who has known me in a better day than the writer of this note.

I have been long an associate of the writer of this note, and who has known me in a better day than the writer of this note.

I am, therefore, well acquainted with the character of the writer of this note, and who has known me in a better day than the writer of this note.

John Smith.
