THE HOUL-ULANS.
Alas how awif the moments fly!
How fash the years along!
Source here, yet some already by!
The burden of a song.
See childhood, youth, and manhood pass;
And age, with furrow'd brow;
Time was—Time shall be, drains the glass
But shave is time is now?

Time is the measure but of change;
No present hour is found;
The past—the future—fill the range
Of Time's unceasing round.
Where then is now! In realms above
With God's atoning Lamb,
In regions of eternal Love,
Where aits enthroned I am.

Thee, Filiprin, he thy jory and tears, On time so longer lean;
But hanceforth all thy hopes and tears,
From Earth's affections wenn.
To God! let voive access rise;
With truth—with virtue live;
So all the olise that Time denies,
Bierhity shall give.

So all the bins an Mischity shell give.
