THE LIBERATOR

POETRY

THE SIX OF AMERICAN SLAVERY.

February 21st, 1856.

New York City.

To the Editor of the "Liberator.

Dear Sir:

I have just received a gazetteer, and I wish to thank you for it.

Yours truly,

[Signature]

Non-Resistance.

PEACE AND WAR.

[Long article discussing the relationship between peace and war, focusing on the abolition of slavery as a means to achieve peace.]

Miscellany.

[Short articles and notices, including:

- A list of subscriptions for the "Liberator".
- A notice of a meeting in New York City.
- A notice about the sale of a book.
- Notices from various abolitionist organizations.
]

FOUNDED BY JOHN W. DOUGLAS, 1833.

NOTICE

[Legal notice for a case or some official announcement.]

COLES PARGAN

Lecture and Library.

[Notice promoting lectures or a library event.]

NEW BOOKS

[List of new books recently published, including authors and titles.

H. L. DEVEREUX, Book and Job Printer.

Princeton, N. J.

DESPAIR IN AMERICA.

[Article discussing the state of despair among the American people, possibly relating to political or social issues.]