COMMUNICATIONS.

The New Anti-Slavery Society.

Boston, May 26, 1848.

The New Anti-Slavery Society is now holding its first meeting in the city of Boston, and we are glad to note its organization. The society is composed of a number of the most active and influential anti-slavery men of the city, and it is expected to do much good work in the future.

Any person agreeing with its principles, and desiring to become a member, may apply to any of its officers for admission.

J. H. S.}

The American Anti-Slavery Society is now holding its monthly meeting in this city. The society has grown rapidly in the past year, and is now one of the largest and most active anti-slavery organizations in the country. It is composed of a number of the most influential men in the anti-slavery movement, and is expected to do much good work in the future.

Any person agreeing with the society's principles, and desiring to become a member, may apply to any of its officers for admission.
THE LIBERATOR.

Boston, Friday Morning, May 24, 1861.

LETTER FROM THE EDITOR.

The following are a few letters that have been received by the editor of the Liberator, during the past week, on matters of public importance.

New Hampshire.

The Liberator received from Mr. G. H. B. a letter, dated May 19th, in which he states that the people of New Hampshire are now in a state of great excitement, owing to the recent events in the South. He states that the people are divided into two parties, one in favor of the Union, and the other in favor of the secession of the Southern States. He states that the people are upon the verge of a great struggle, and that the issue of the conflict is uncertain. He states that the Liberator is doing all in its power to promote the peace and prosperity of the country.

New York.

The Liberator received from Mr. J. H. T. a letter, dated May 21st, in which he states that the people of New York are now in a state of great excitement, owing to the recent events in the South. He states that the people are divided into two parties, one in favor of the Union, and the other in favor of the secession of the Southern States. He states that the people are upon the verge of a great struggle, and that the issue of the conflict is uncertain. He states that the Liberator is doing all in its power to promote the peace and prosperity of the country.

Los Angeles.

The Liberator received from Mr. W. H. D. a letter, dated May 22nd, in which he states that the people of Los Angeles are now in a state of great excitement, owing to the recent events in the South. He states that the people are divided into two parties, one in favor of the Union, and the other in favor of the secession of the Southern States. He states that the people are upon the verge of a great struggle, and that the issue of the conflict is uncertain. He states that the Liberator is doing all in its power to promote the peace and prosperity of the country.

NOTICES.

MR. GARRISON'S ADDRESS TO ENGLAND.

The Liberator has received a copy of Mr. Garrison's address to England, which he has been requested to forward to the Times and the Observer. The address is a powerful one, and is sure to have a beneficial effect on the public mind.

SUMMARY OF NEWS.

From the Continental Herald.

The news from the Continental Herald is as follows: The President has signed the proclamation declaring a state of war with the Southern States. The war will commence on the 24th. The army of the United States is now in a state of readiness, and is expected to be ready for action in the course of the next week. The government has called for 100,000 volunteers to serve in the army. The news from the Southern States is as follows: The Southern States have declared a state of war with the United States. The Southern States are now in a state of readiness, and are expected to be ready for action in the course of the next week. The government has called for 100,000 volunteers to serve in the army.

LAWYER ATTORNEY.

The Liberator has received a letter from Mr. J. H. T., of New York, in which he states that he has been appointed a lawyer-attorney by the government. He states that he will use his best endeavors to carry out the will of the government, and to promote the peace and prosperity of the country.

The Liberator has received a letter from Mr. W. H. D., of Los Angeles, in which he states that he has been appointed a lawyer-attorney by the government. He states that he will use his best endeavors to carry out the will of the government, and to promote the peace and prosperity of the country.