SCOTLAND.

Glasgow Emancipation Society.

The books of the Emancipation Society of Glasgow, containing the minutes of the meetings and transactions of the society, have been published, as usual, at the end of each year. The society is now in a prosperous state, and is doing good work in the cause of emancipation. It has a large number of subscribers, and a large amount of money in its hands. The society is now engaged in publishing a series of pamphlets on the subject of emancipation, and is making good progress in its work.

BRITISH INDIA.

SPEECH OF DASHIEL, POSTCOLL.

Mr. Dashiel, the Indian advocate, made a speech in the Indian Council on the subject of the suppression of the opium trade. He said that the opium trade was a serious evil, and that something must be done to put a stop to it. He said that the British government was doing all that it could to put a stop to the opium trade, and that it was making good progress in its work. He said that the Indian people were greatly benefited by the suppression of the opium trade, and that it was doing good work in the cause of reform.

The council passed a resolution in favor of the suppression of the opium trade, and the government was instructed to continue its work in this direction.
THE LIBERATOR.

POETRY.

BARTER'S GENTLEMAN.

Non-Resistence.

The child's first lesson in the gym
From the Meeting One.

The child's first lesson in the gym:
From the Meeting One.