THE LIBERATOR
OUR COUNTRY IS THE WORLD—OUR COUNTRYMEN ARE ALL MANKIND.

BOSTON, FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 27, 1840.

REFUGE OF OPPRESSION.

From the Christian Freeman.

It has been alleged, that those of us who would seek to speak and act in behalf of the rights of African slavery, are merely endeavoring to promote the interests of a class of colored persons, who are not in any sense of the term a part of the American nation. We answer, that we are endeavoring to maintain the principles of equal justice and humanity, which are the essential conditions of the rights of man. We are seeking to establish the fact, that all men are created equal; and that no one is born into a state of slavery, which is inconsistent with the principles of liberty and equality.

American Abolition Movement. The national cry to outsiders is strongest in a united and well-organized movement. The movement is well known to outsiders. It is represented by the American Anti-Slavery Society, which was organized in 1833. The society numbers several thousand members, and is supported by contributions from many parts of the country. Its object is to secure the immediate and complete abolition of slavery in the United States. The society has been active in publishing and circulating anti-slavery tracts, and in promoting the education of those who are in the habit of thinking about the subject.

RIGHTS OF WOMAN.

From the Boston Citizen.

Women have always been considered as inferior to men in the scale of intelligence. But I believe, that they have as much right to a share in the advantages of education, as men. And I think, that the dignity and importance of the female sex, is such, as to entitle them to equal rights with men in all the branches of public and private life.

SELECTIONS.

A Visit.

If a visit is made in any place before a house of public worship, it is usually reorganized by Judge Corbin. The judge is a man of much influence, and is respected by all who know him.

IRELAND.

The following article and political notice, taken from the New York Herald, will be found of importance.

Scotland.

The following article and political notice, taken from the New York Herald, will be found of importance.

from the Boston Freeman's Journal.

The constitution of the United States provides that the President of the United States shall be elected by the people of the United States. The President is the chief executive officer of the government, and is responsible for the execution of the laws of the land. He is elected by the people, and is answerable to them for his conduct. He is also the commander-in-chief of the armed forces of the United States.

the Scottish Colonization Society, which was organized in 1832.

The society numbers several thousand members, and is supported by contributions from many parts of the country. Its object is to secure the immediate and complete abolition of slavery in the United States. The society has been active in publishing and circulating anti-slavery tracts, and in promoting the education of those who are in the habit of thinking about the subject.

IRELAND.

The following article and political notice, taken from the New York Herald, will be found of importance.

Scotland.

The following article and political notice, taken from the New York Herald, will be found of importance.

from the Boston Freeman's Journal.

The constitution of the United States provides that the President of the United States shall be elected by the people of the United States. The President is the chief executive officer of the government, and is responsible for the execution of the laws of the land. He is elected by the people, and is answerable to them for his conduct. He is also the commander-in-chief of the armed forces of the United States.