SELECTIONS.

From the Cambridge Journal.

To John W.,

I am request to open a correspondence. I have been in the habit of reading the papers which have been written on the subject of the abolition of slavery in the United States, and I think that it would be well if we could have a discussion on the subject.

Yours, etc.,

John W.

From the New York Commercial Advertiser.

The American Slavery Question. A public meeting will be held on the 18th instant, at 7 o'clock, in the New York Commercial Advertiser, for the purpose of discussing the American slavery question. The meeting will be conducted by the following gentlemen:—

G. W. H., M. A.; W. H. H.; and J. H. W.

The meeting will be open to the public, and all persons interested in the subject are invited to attend.

Yours, etc.,

The Editor.
