THE LIBERATOR
OUR COUNTRY IN THE WORLD—OUR COUNTRYMEN ARE ALL MANKIND.

BOSTON, FRIDAY, OCTOBER 15, 1841.

COMMUNICATIONS.

The following is from a letter of Mr. Thurlow, of Cincinnati, to the New York Times:

The city has been very much excited by the recent decision of the Supreme Court of the State of Ohio, declaring the law of the state, as regards the employment of negroes in the state, to be unconstitutional. The decision was given on the 1st of October, and the citizens of the city are much agitated by it. The law, which has been in force for many years, prohibits the employment of negroes in the state, with the exception of persons who are born in the state, and who are of the age of twenty-one years. The law has been frequently challenged, and has been tried in the courts of the state, but without success. The present decision, however, is the first that has been given in favor of the negroes. The decision has been hailed with joy by the negroes, and with regret by the whites. The negroes are rejoicing at the prospect of freedom, and the whites are lamenting the prospect of a mixing of the races. The decision has been hailed with joy by the negroes, and with regret by the whites.
