THE LIBERATOR
OUR COUNTRY IS THE WORLD—OUR COUNTRYMEN ARE ALL HUMAN.

BOSTON, FRIDAY, JANUARY 28, 1842.

SELECTIONS.

The day was one of great importance in the annals of the American cause. The Senate of the United States, after long and arduous debate, and after many postponements, at last decided to take up the subject of slavery in the District of Columbia. The question was then referred to the committee of eleven, of which Mr. Calhoun was a member. The committee was to report on the 1st of February. The Senate, however, adjourned without taking action on the subject.

COMMUNICATIONS.

From the United States.

Boston, January 17th, 1843.

B. F. W.,

Dear Friend:—I have just received your letter, and take pleasure in assuring you of the warmest expression of my interest in your health and welfare. I am glad to hear that you have recovered from your illness, and that you find your health now in a state of perfect health. I pray that you may continue to enjoy the same, and that you may be spared to see many more years of happiness and prosperity.

Your obedient servant,

B. F. W.
