THE LIBERATOR

OUR COUNTRY TO THE WORLD—OUR CONSTITUTIONS ARE ALL RANKING.

BOSTON, FRIDAY, JANUARY 28, 1848.

WHOLE NO. 658.

REFUGE OF OPPRESSION.

CORRESPONDENCE.

SELECTIONS.

Refugees from Hungary.

FROM THE SATURDAY EVENING POST.

A MOURNFUL STORY.

At the beginning of last November, a new paper, called the \"Daily Milliner,\" was published in Philadelphia. The proprietor and editor of this paper is Mr. Thomas P. Morgan, of the Star, and the paper is to be a daily one. The price of it is 10 cents a week. The first number contains a large amount of interesting and instructive matter, and is well printed and bound.

Mr. Morgan is a man of considerable ability, and has been a journalist for many years. He is a Democrat, and is opposed to the annexation of Texas. He is also a strong advocate of free trade, and is opposed to the tariff.

The paper is well worth reading, and is doing good work.

Readers of the \"Liberator\" will be pleased to hear that Mr. D. R. Dennison has been appointed postmaster at Waterbury, Conn.

Refugees from Hungary.

From the New York Herald.

A number of refugees from Hungary have arrived in this city. They are suffering greatly from hunger and cold. They have been driven from their homes by the army of the Austrian government, and are now on their way to the United States. They have no money, and are without means of support. They are being cared for by the American Protective Association, and are being allowed to remain in the city until they can make their way to the country of their choice.

The refugees are a hard-working and industrious people, and are likely to become good citizens.

The American Protective Association is doing excellent work in aiding the refugees from Hungary.

The \"Liberator\" is pleased to hear that Mr. D. R. Dennison has been appointed postmaster at Waterbury, Conn.

Readers of the \"Liberator\" will be pleased to hear that Mr. D. R. Dennison has been appointed postmaster at Waterbury, Conn.

Refugees from Hungary.

From the New York Herald.

A number of refugees from Hungary have arrived in this city. They are suffering greatly from hunger and cold. They have been driven from their homes by the army of the Austrian government, and are now on their way to the United States. They have no money, and are without means of support. They are being cared for by the American Protective Association, and are being allowed to remain in the city until they can make their way to the country of their choice.

The refugees are a hard-working and industrious people, and are likely to become good citizens.

The American Protective Association is doing excellent work in aiding the refugees from Hungary.

The \"Liberator\" is pleased to hear that Mr. D. R. Dennison has been appointed postmaster at Waterbury, Conn.

Readers of the \"Liberator\" will be pleased to hear that Mr. D. R. Dennison has been appointed postmaster at Waterbury, Conn.
THE LIBERATOR

FRIDAY MORNING, JANUARY 22, 1863.

To the Editor:

You are more in my part than I feel the least, in opposing your view of the "American spirit," as expressed in your letter to the New York Tribune. With the government of the United States, I am not in opposition. I feel for the Union, and the restoration of the Constitution of the United States, as much as I feel for the Union, and the restoration of the Constitution of the United States. But I do not feel for the Constitution of the United States, as much as I feel for the Union, and the restoration of the Constitution of the United States.

I am, etc.,

[Signature]

THE LIBERATOR

FRIDAY MORNING, JANUARY 22, 1863.

The Constitution of the United States is the foundation of our Government, and the basis of our free institutions. It is the charter of our liberties, and the pledge of our rights. It is the source of our power, and the repository of our authority. It is the charter of our liberties, and the pledge of our rights. It is the source of our power, and the repository of our authority.

The Constitution of the United States is the foundation of our Government, and the basis of our free institutions. It is the charter of our liberties, and the pledge of our rights. It is the source of our power, and the repository of our authority.

[Continued text]

THE LIBERATOR

FRIDAY MORNING, JANUARY 22, 1863.

[Continued text]

[Continued text]

[Continued text]

[Continued text]