ENGLAND.

Interesting Reformation.

The following are the results of the recent meeting of Friends in England. The business was very extensive and important. The spirit of the late slain is reflected in the proceedings of the meeting. The purpose of the committee was to consider the question of the propriety of the efforts made by the government of the United States to obtain the release of the slaves in the British West Indies. The committee was divided into two sections, one under the direction of Mr. S. J. Neyland, and the other under the direction of Mr. J. F. Smith. The committee of Mr. Neyland took into consideration the proposition of the government of the United States to purchase the slaves in the British West Indies, and the committee of Mr. Smith took into consideration the question of the propriety of the efforts made by the government of the United States to obtain the release of the slaves in the British West Indies.

Richard Gurney.

LETTER FROM Tgwampe, NEW YORK.

FRIDAY, JULY 28, 1843.

Mr. Samuel Power:

I am in receipt of your letter of the 19th instant, which you transmitted to me. I have been much interested in the subject of the abolition of slavery in the United States, and I am happy to see that the efforts of the government of the United States to obtain the release of the slaves in the British West Indies are proceeding with success. The proposition of the government of the United States to purchase the slaves in the British West Indies is a matter of great importance, and I am glad to hear that it is being carried out with energy and success. The committee of Mr. Neyland, under the direction of Mr. S. J. Neyland, has taken a very active part in the consideration of this question, and I am happy to see that their efforts are bearing fruit.

Mr. Neyland has been a strong advocate of the abolition of slavery in the United States, and his labors in this cause have been unremitting. He has been a leader in the movement for the abolition of slavery, and his influence has been great. The committee of Mr. Smith, under the direction of Mr. J. F. Smith, has also taken a very active part in the consideration of this question, and I am glad to see that their efforts are bearing fruit. The government of the United States is to be congratulated on the success with which it is carrying out its efforts to obtain the release of the slaves in the British West Indies.

I am, therefore, much gratified to see that the efforts of the government of the United States to obtain the release of the slaves in the British West Indies are proceeding with success, and I rejoice to learn that the committee of Mr. Neyland, under the direction of Mr. S. J. Neyland, has taken a very active part in the consideration of this question. The government of the United States is to be congratulated on the success with which it is carrying out its efforts to obtain the release of the slaves in the British West Indies.