THE LIBERATOR:
OUR COUNTRY
IN THE WORLD—
OUR CONSTITUENTS ARE ALL MANKIND.

BOSTON, FRIDAY, AUGUST 22, 1840.

WHOLE NO. 659.

On the 11th of May last, we had the pleasure of publishing a letter from Mr. Wm. Clay, a fellow-countryman of ours, who had just returned from his visit to the State of New York, and from his residence for many years, to the city of New York. The letter was written in a tone of the most decided and persevering contempt, and with a spirit of the most unqualified and stubborn resistance, to the measures of the National Government, and was published with the impression that it would have a salutary effect on the public opinion. The letter was written in a tone of the most decided and persevering contempt, and with a spirit of the most unqualified and stubborn resistance, to the measures of the National Government, and was published with the impression that it would have a salutary effect on the public opinion.