The content was taken from the Public. The Publishers do not bear any responsibility for the accuracy of the information contained herein. The views expressed are those of the contributors and do not necessarily reflect the views of the editorial staff.

Anti-Slavery Committee.

The Ohio Anti-Slavery Society held its annual meeting at the Masonic Hall, Cincinnati, on the 8th instant. The meeting was called to order by Mr. J. D. Brown, chairman of the Executive Committee, and the following officers were elected for the ensuing year:

- President: Mr. J. D. Brown.
- Vice-President: Mr. A. E. Tower.
- Secretary: Mr. H. D. H. Whipple.
- Treasurer: Mr. C. H. Green.

The society also presented a memorial to Congress, asking for the abolition of slavery in the District of Columbia. A petition signed by 10,000 citizens was presented to the President, expressing their desire for the immediate emancipation of all slaves in the District. The President promised to forward the petition to Congress.

Arkansas Newsletter.

Notwithstanding the secession of Arkansas, the Anti-Slavery Society continues to function in the state. At the last meeting of the society, the following resolutions were adopted:

- Resolved: That the society continue to work for the abolition of slavery in the state.
- Resolved: That the society make every effort to prevent the extension of slavery into the territories.

Newspaper Column.

The Weekly Post announced that the following newspapers have been received:

- The Liberator.
- The Independent.
- The Freedom's Journal.

The society encourages the subscription to these newspapers, as they provide valuable information on the condition of the slaves and the progress of the abolition movement.

Education of Slaves.

The Freedmen's Bureau is carrying out a program to educate former slaves. The bureau has established schools in several states, and the progress has been remarkable. The bureau has received reports from teachers indicating that the children are eager to learn and that their education is progressing well.

Local News.

- Philadelphia.
  - The Pennsylvania Anti-Slavery Society held a meeting to discuss the situation in the South. The society was concerned about the treatment of the freedmen and the possibility of a new slave rebellion.
- Boston.
  - The Massachusetts Anti-Slavery Society announced that it would send a delegation to Washington to meet with Congress to discuss the abolition of slavery.

International News.

- Great Britain.
  - The British government has announced that it will not recognize any states that secede from the Union.
- France.
  - Anti-slavery sentiment is growing in France, and the government has promised to support the abolition of slavery in the United States.

Letters to the Editor.

- Mr. Brown: Mr. Brown expressed his concern about the fate of the freedmen and called for immediate action to ensure their safety and well-being.
- Mr. Smith: Mr. Smith praised the work of the Anti-Slavery Society and urged others to join the movement.

Letters from Overseas.

- From London: Mr. O'Connor, a correspondent, reported that there is widespread support for the abolition of slavery in the United States, and that the British government is considering steps to pressure the United States to act.

Obituary.

Mr. John Brown, a prominent Anti-Slavery Society member, passed away last week. He was a dedicated worker for the cause and will be sorely missed by his colleagues and friends. His legacy will continue to inspire the movement.

---

End of the Article.

More news and updates will be provided in the next issue. Stay tuned for the latest developments in the Anti-Slavery movement.