POETRY. From the National A. S. St

Frem the National A. S. Canada ANNEXATION OF TEXAS. denoit the South, whose nobler sizes Fought Freedom's battle in their da And opened for our youthful land, A freich and glorious way; day

A freih and glorious wayi Who, gazing down the coming timb; With prophet vision, decaned they mu Their children's day a day sublimb; Of Just and equal law; Where 'Freedom's self had burnt to view, Blining on all, ai doth the sun; Where bonds which they had field to u Their children had undane;-

Why seek ye know to quench this Bam That it the age in which they stood, And finding pride where they found she Prove bastards to their blood?

Why, if your own homes still must be Carsed with the slaver's bloody mar Cursing the ground, cursing the tree, Cursing the very heart;

faill the curse must work, work off, Until the earth, the obdient sod, hall from your service turn in scorn, Because you serve not God ;--

Because you were not tool ;--Why, if all thin mub be, why seek On other lastics to plant this lie? Grashing they are not atrong, but weah, Why must they also die? Must they thus periah, that your time Bwell not so soon unto in Bood? Or think yo to resew your prime; By a fresh bath of blood?

Ob, Thou, our failhers' shield and aw Oh, interpose thy mighty hand ! Scatter like chaff the Texas horde; The pirates of the land !

The process of the same . Man units more a rod, Where wraih, and guilt, and sin, inc. And those whose hearts obey not God; Can never build a nation's peace.

And for those in our midst, who plot And strike hands with these man of prey, Donfound their bounsels-let them not Go forth to rob and slay !

Bid the true Southron heart speak forth, Above this din of braggart herds, As in old limes, when the free North Thrilled unto its great words.

Is there no Henry now, to Watn A slightering land? Is there no son Like him who wrote, * All are freeborn Is there no Weshington ?

Where are the heroes who embalm A nation's bistory ? Whom bice we knew, with great souls calm And genial as the day ?

And genial as the day? iave they all pariaited? We to you And we to us, then,--we to all? reedom and man's last set is through-Let the world's curtain fall?

Let the world's certain, All' Share on my coveraf heart 1 bin min Live nor, who shard behold that heart and the brave South shall speech gate as what Her great once upole in power.
