Terrible Ecent.—We have heard of a most terriold districting occurrence in Dellac county. The yas they have come to us, are a follows:
appeare that Bethel Holmes, a planter in that ty, was very much enamored of Mrs. McKena, a worther in two Col. Richardson, tre Dellas. While of the standard of the planter of the standard of the standard of the standard of the standard of the standards the standards of re, urged, as is supposed, by jealousy or insanity, shot her, and immediately afterwards killed him-

This most terrible tragedy occurred on Saturday, the 20th uit. The following is an extract of a letter from Marios, acted the Sist.

We have just beard that Rolmesia dead. They we have just beard that Rolmesia dead. They we have just beard that Rolmesia dead. They may be seen that the seen of the seen of the Max MacKan to walk into the parlor. The family heard the report of a pistol, and while opening the down, heard ansitire. There lay Holass on the flow till struggling. Mrs. MacKan was sitting in the heart. The seed. He should be right through the heart.

Dougherty, the man who was shot at Georgetown, Ky., some days since, by John Branham, died of the wound on Tuesday night. Mr. Girardeau O'Bryan, of Colleton district, S, was killed by a young man mamed Arthur Hyatt, Walterborough, during the sitting of the court common pleas for that district.

The person who was drowned while skating in Waltham, was named Gardner Spear. The seel-dent took place on Saturday aftersoon, and not on Sanday, as has been stated. He was 30 years of age, and a man of excellent habits. He has left a wife and family behind him.

A Mr. Crassous, of New York, was drowned Bush River, near Baltimore, on Monday night. was standing on the platform of the cars as trailread train went over the river, when his hat bl. off, and in attempting to catch it, he fell, and sank in the evenings of the first and second mut, on the romiers of Romagna, between the Swiss and the contificial troops. Italy is in a very ansettled state. The State Prisons of Rome are reported to be filled with 7000 prisoners, many of them of the first families. They don't pay their way. Canada and the Wendin Islands cost the British government nearly 1,000,000, exclusive of the revenue collected in hem, merely in military and naval outlays for their clence!
