RAIN IN SUMMER.

BY MEARY * LOSSYPELE

How beautiful is the rain!

After the dust and heat,

In the broad and firsty street,

In the narrow lane,

How beautiful is the rain!

How bestirdle is the rain!
How it clatters along the code,
Like the transper of bornegies out.
Frein the threat of bornegies out.
Frein the threat of the overflowing spa.
Access the window years.
It pours and pourse,
And worth each winds,
With a mouldy title,
Like a river tower the gutter reser.
The rain, the welcome rain!
The inch may found the chamber looks
At the vanced window.
Each of the code o

From the neighboring school
Come the boys,
With more than their wonted noise
And commotion;
And slows the west streets
Sail their himins fleets,
Till the treacherous pool
Engulis them in its whiting
And turbulent ocean.

In the country, on every side,
Where, far and wide,
Like a leopard's tawny and spotted hide,
Stretches the plain,
To the dry grass and the drier grain
How welcome is the rain!

From Douglas Jerrold's Magaz A VICTORY !

The joy-bells peal a morry tune
Along the evening arr;
The cracking loofinges turn the sky
Allerinsson with their glave;
Bold music falls the startled streets
With muth-inspiring sound;
The gaping cannon's reddening bre
Wakes thunder shouts around;
And thousand joyful voices viry,
Hursai huxai a Victory;

· Hunn hunn a Victory T.
Allile grit clouds at the door,
And with her hitten played;
Less wide and freitheamen thin abo,
That roop, pretting made.
Budden her check turns ghobilty white;
He eye with faw is filled,
And runking lini-doors, the surcemis'My brother Willie's Killed'
